GERMANY'S DEFI.

The Berlin Press Hostile About Samoa.

Bismarck's Organ Ridicules the Idea of Treaty Rights.

The Chancellor's Attitude Causes a Commotion at Washington.

What Secretary Bayard Says of the Situation—Senators and Congressmen Generally Regard War with Germany About Samoa as Very Improbable.

By Telegraph to The Times.

BERLIN, Jan. 24.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The Cologne Gazette declares that there is no occasion to fear that the excellent relations between Germany and America are in danger of undergoing any radical change. It says: "Comparatively little importance is to be attached to the last acts of an American Government about to quit office. Under the Presidency of Harrison a complete clearance of Cleveland's official staff becomes unavoidable. Mr. Cleveland's most recent steps, therefore have lost their importance and his actions are in no way binding upon Mr. Harrison. From intelligence received here it is evident that the American Government treats the Samoan question in a spirit hostile to Germany and on a basis of incorrect suppositions. It is incorrect to speak of a violation by Germany of actual agreements between the treaty powers, as no treaty was ever concluded between Germany, Great Britain and America in regards to Samoa, while on the other hand such treaty does exist between Germany and England. The excitement in America is, therefore, incomprehensible. Bayard has declared that he does not know whether Klein is an American subject, but nevertheless he is responsible for Klein's misdeeds."

WHAT BISMARCK'S ORGAN SAYS.

The North German Gazette, Bismarck's organ, denies the existence of any treaty precluding any European power from acquiring ascendency in Samoa. It also denies that England and the United States are agreed that the proceedings of the German agent in Samoa are contrary to the stipulation of treaties or opposed to diplomatic etiquette, and that these powers have officially notified the German Government accordingly. The treaties, the Gazette further says, provide that Samoa shall cede to each treaty power equal rights with either of the others, but no treaty regarding neutrality or independence of Samoa exists between Germany and the United States.

A COMMOTION IN ENGLAND.

LONDON Jan. 24.—The article in the North German Gazette, relative to treaties regarding Samoa, caused a commotion in official circles here. By some it is regarded as a deliberate defiance to the Washington Government.

Commenting on Samoan affairs, the News says: "It is extremely important that England should act cordially with America. It is therefore more to be regretted that we have no Minister at Washington. If Lord Salisbury would be a little less humble to Germany and a little more civil to America it would be better for all concerned."

The Standard's Berlin correspondent writes: "The statement of Sewall, American Consul-General in Samoa, caused surprise here, but no objection would be raised to a convention of that nature, as it would end once for all the long international conflicts about these islands."

ENGLAND WILL GO IT ALONE.

BERLIN, Jan. 24.—The North German Gazette says that the English Cabinet disclaims coöperation with the Washington Government regarding Samoa.

WASHINGTON OPINION.

How Germany's Position is Regarded at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—[By the Associated Press.] Dispatches have been received at the State Department from the American Minister at Berlin in regard to the Samoan question. Their contents are withheld from publicity except some extracts from German newspapers, giving accounts of and commenting on the fight in which so many Germans lost their lives. The previous languid tone of the press in regard to Samoan affairs was quickened to fever heat by Die Kleine Journal of Berlin of the 7th inst., which says:

"According to official reports from Apia of the 28th of December, the landing corps of the Olga was sent to accompany the German Consul to the scene of war of the natives in consequence of the destruction of German property and bodily insults to the marines while on leave, the Consul going there for the purpose of instituting disarmament. On the way to Vailele plantation the landing corps of the Olga was, by surprise, attacked by the insurrectionists under the leadership of an American named Klein. A landing being thereupon made by the cruiser Adler and gunboat Eber, the natives were thrown back and several of villages situated on the coast destroyed. Lieut. Sieger and 15 men are dead. Lieuts. Spengler and Burchardt, as well as 36 men, are wounded. The victory is a costly one, and not one to be rejoiced over. German meddling in the quarrels of Kings Mataafa Malietoa and Tamasese has been hailed with rejoicing from several quarters for the reason that the final result of the business was expected to be the occupation of Samoa by the German empire. England and the United States do not, however, agree to such a consummation, and now we have even lost a number of men in battle with the despised islanders, a new leaf in the history of our colonial policy, a laurel leaf, but what sort of a one?"

HURLING DEFIANCE.

Assistant Secretary Rives read the dispatches carefully this afternoon and remarked with a smile: "They seem to be hurling defiance in our teeth, don't they?"

When asked if he had not some further comment to make on the subject he said he had

THE BONEYARD.

AN UNDERTAKER IN CHARGE OF THE ESTABLISHMENT.

His Official Capacity, However, Is That of a Sheriff's Keeper—Set-to Between Councilman H. T. D. Wilson and Boyce—The Man Friday in a Gutter.

Yesterday morning the dying Trombone printed a vindictive article against Councilman H. T. D. Wilson. In substance the winding-sheet accused Mr. Wilson of having attempted to purchase a certain note in the Southern California National Bank. The article reads as follows:

"COWARDLY AND DISREPUTABLE.

"The desperate warfare now being made against the Tribune by a half-dozen men in this city was illustrated yesterday by the cowardly conduct of two of the reckless crowd who are striving to ruin the standing and credit of this journal. H. T. D. Wilson, whom THE TIMES recently distinguished as the Councilman-elect from Texas, who would be satisfied with nothing less than the earth and a wire fence around it, guided in the nefarious plot by F. A. Eastman, called upon the cashier of a certain bank and asked if the bank held a note against the Tribune Publishing Company. The cashier is an honorable gentleman, and very properly refused to convey to his questioners any information regarding the business of the institution. Disappointed, the bright and charming pair left the bank. Later an excited interview occurred between H. T. D. Wilson and Otis of THE TIMES in front of the Los Angeles Theater. Soon after this incident the same parties returned to the bank and offered to pay cash for any note it might hold against the Tribune. They received the same reply as before, and again went away. This was a deliberate attempt on the part of a Democratic ward politician, a business rival and his stool-pigeon, to injure or destroy the credit of this newspaper. The depths of infamy are being dredged by the miserable combination, which hopes to ruin the only reputable morning Republican journal in Los Angeles. They will utterly fail. The Tribune is here to stay, and will be on deck when its traducers and their contemptible practices have felt the heel of public disapproval, and the sinking ship they are trying to save has been swallowed up in the oblivion of disgrace and bankruptcy."

HIS "DEFI."

In another column the following editorial squib appears:

"It may be comparatively easy for a certain ward politician to stave off the financial ruin of a rotten Texas savings bank [Meaning a bank in Texas.] by standing in with its officials and robbing its depositors, but the people of Los Angeles will not countenance such infamous business methods. The gentleman will recognize himself in the above thrust, and ought to have manhood enough left to hide his bald head in shame for the conduct of his younger years. Perhaps he is lost to all sense of honor and hence hesitates not to do any other work too dirty for honorable business men."

Right here it might not be out of place to state that Col. Otis never attempted, directly or indirectly, to purchase any of the Tribune Company's paper, and did not go to that bank with Wilson or any one else on that business, and did not offer to assist in getting hold of the paper. The mad Tribune gang strike wild in their frantic efforts to hit their armored foe.

Mr. Wilson did not read the above articles until quite late in the day, but as soon as he did he started out to look up the Smooth Citizen, but that individual could not be found until a few minutes past 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

At that time Mr. Wilson and his attorney, B. B. Cain, were walking up Spring street near the Trombone office, when Boyce issued from the stairway. Wilson and Cain were only a few steps away, and when Boyce saw Wilson he turned and walked up the street at a rapid pace, but he was not fast enough, for Wilson and Cain overtook him opposite No. 44 North Spring street. Just at this moment J. C. Daly, ex-City Attorney, stepped up and entered into conversation with Boyce. Wilson and Cain stopped, and Wilson introduced Boyce and Daly to Cain.

THE ALTERCATION.

Wilson turned to Boyce and said:

"In your paper of this morning you published a statement regarding me that is false, and it does me great injustice. I want you to make a retraction in your paper to-morrow, and I demand that you apologize in the presence of these gentlemen."

"I did not write the article," said Boyce, "but you must come up into my office if you want to talk the matter over with me."

"No, sir, you shall not say that I must do anything. We can talk it over right here. If you are responsible for what appears in the Tribune you must apologize. I will not go to your room or cage."

THE FIGHT.

"I am responsible and I will not apologize," said Boyce, and at the same moment he made a pass at Wilson with his fist. Wilson warded off the blow, and at the same time slapped Boyce in the face with his left hand, knocking off his silk hat.

At this moment W. H. Seamans, one of Boyce's obsequious adherents, who was standing across the street, rushed over and grabbed Wilson from behind, and held his arms. This act on Seamans's part turned Wilson partly around, and Boyce made a rush for him and struck at him with a heavy cane that he carried. Wilson also had a light cane in his right hand, and when Boyce struck at him he disengaged his right arm, and in warding off Boyce's blow, that person's cane was broken, but half of it remained in his hand. Before Wilson could again strike the Smooth Citizen, his arm was caught, and he was pulled around in such a manner that his back was to Boyce. Boyce took advantage of this state of affairs, and began to peck at Wilson's head with the half of his cane which remained in his hand.

SEAMANS SEEKS THE SECLUSION OF THE GUTTER.

Mr. Cain, who is a little fellow from Texas, had quietly watched the affair up to this stage of the performance. He noticed that his friend and client was being back-capped, and, quicker than a flash, he jumped in and dragged Seamans away from Wilson. This was a move that the aspirant for the United States Land Receivership had not anticipated, and he turned on Cain with all the dignity of an Arizona office-holder. He succeeded in getting his arms around Cain, and attempted to throw the little lawyer from Texas, but that gentleman knew a thing or two about gymnastics, and with a lightning-like move of his left foot Mr. Seamans was sent flying into the gutter. He landed flat on his back, and before he could bat his dignified eyes Cain was "a-straddle" of him. Several hundred people had gathered around by this time, and they hooted and howled when they took in the queer scene in the gutter. Mr. Seamans gave several commands in his deep voice, which sounded something like "Let me up, you little rascal!" but the determined Texan proposed to see fair play, so he simply jammed Seamans's head back to its resting place and quietly ejaculated, "Keep quiet, or you'll get hurt."

MORE FIGHTING.

While this little byplay was going on, another crowd was trying to separate Wilson and Boyce. Some of the spectators, however, were anxious to see the circus go on, and several voices were heard to cry, "Shoot the bloke, Wilson!" But cooler heads put down all demonstrations of that kind, and the fight went industriously on. As soon as Wilson was liberated, he struck Boyce two stinging blows in the face, when the crowd rushed in, and the two were separated once more. The last blow struck by Wilson was with his right hand, and Boyce staggered back several feet.

"DON'T SHOOT."

The force of the blow caused Wilson's pistol to jump partly from its resting place in his waist band, and when he placed his hand on it to readjust it, some one who saw the move imagined that he was about to shoot and gave the alarm, crying, "Don't shoot." A general stampede took place, and Boyce yelled, "Don't shoot! don't shoot! don't shoot!"

"No, sir, I will not shoot. I did not come here to kill you, or I would have done so before now. But I wish you to understand that I will resent an insult when ever it is offered."

HAULED OFF FOR REPAIRS.

Before this speech was concluded, Boyce had made off, and was soon seated in his office, where he had his head rubbed.

As soon as Cain saw that the fight was over, he allowed Seamans to rise to his feet. As soon as that individual found himself free, he whipped out not a "gun," but a deadly note-book and leadpencil, and in a pompous tone ejeculated:

"What is your name, sir?"

"None of your d— business," replied the little man from Texas, and he walked into the office at No. 44, where Mr. Wilson went to wipe the blood from his hands and head.

WILSON INTERVIEWED.

Mr. Wilson was seen last night and questioned about the affair.

"I have but little to say about the matter. I went to Boyce in a gentlemanly manner and told him that he had misrepresented me, and that I had the documents to prove it. He demanded that I go to his his office to discuss the matter, and when I replied that we would settle it there, meaning that we would talk the matter over, he struck at me and I defended myself.

"There is one thing that I want to say here, and that is that Col. Otis had nothing whatever to do with the alleged attempt to purchase Tribune paper. That is a lie out of whole cloth."

AN UNDERTAKER.

The Sheriff's Selection for a Trombone Keeper.

Yesterday afternoon, at 4:35 o'clock to the minute, Sheriff Aguirre took legal possession of the entire 'Bone yard. The concern was attached on the $4500 note, which went to protest on the 19th inst., as was noted in THE TIMES of the 22d inst., by the publication of the following letter:

THE NOTIFICATION.

"LOS ANGELES, Jan. 19, 1889.

"To H. H. Boyce, H. T. Payne, Francis A. Eastman—GENTLEMEN: You will please take notice that a certain promissory note dated November 20, 1888, for the sum of four thousand five hundred dollars, payable sixty days after date, drawn by the Tribune Publishing Company in favor of the First National Bank of Los Angeles, and indorsed by you, was this day presented by me (the present owner and holder of said note by transfer from said First National Bank) to the "Tribune Publishing Company," the maker of said note, and payment thereof demanded by me, which was refused, and the said promissory note having been dishonored, the holder looks to you for the payment thereof, together with all costs, charges, interest, expenses and damages already accrued, or that may hereafter accrue thereon by reason of the non-payment of said promissory note. Yours very respectfully, JOHN E. MURRAY.

"Dic. by M."

J. E. Murray, the holder of the note, notified the Tribune Publishing Company that, if the note was not paid, or they did not give paper that could be placed in any bank in the city, and do this by 4 p.m. of the 22d inst., he would put an attachment on the company's property.

Boyce informed him that he was positive that he could raise the wind, if he would give him 24 hours' grace. After some talk, Murray consented to take due one day after date. This kind of a note was drawn up by the Tribune Publishing Company and indorsed by Boyce, Payne, Smith and one other stockholder.

As soon as "Smoothy" got the old note in his hand he thought it would be in order to bully-rag his ex-partner, Col. Eastman, and published the following at the head of his editorial columns the next morning:

"TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

"The $4500 note which was given to the First National Bank of this city for a legitimate loan, was taken up by this corporation yesterday, without the assistance of Col. Eastman, who has gone into partnership with THE TIMES in advertising our financial operations, and if the said Eastman will call at this office, without bringing Otis with him, he will be presented with his name cut from the note.

"TRIBUNE PUBLISHING COMPANY."

Boyce seemed to forget that the new note was to fall due Wednesday afternoon, the 23d inst., at 4 o'clock, but he was very forcibly reminded of that yesterday afternoon, just 24 hours after the second note had fallen due, when Deputy Sheriff Billy Hammell marched into the business office of the concern and served the outfit with attachment papers.

Deputy Hammell was accompanied by

AN UNDERTAKER,

W. C. McBratney, who had been sworn in as keeper. Mr. Hammell, with one glance of his eagle eye, took an account of stock as rapidly as possible, and after he had gathered up the keys of the concern he turned everything over to the ex-undertaker, and reported back to Sheriff Aguirre.

This is probably the first time in the history of newspaperdom that an undertaker has been put in charge of a dying paper by a Sheriff. To say that it is unkind is drawing it mild. It is almost as sad as to send a coffin measurer to a dying man a few hours before he draws his last breath.

This is only the beginning of the end, for several law offices were burning the midnight oil last night, and a glance over the solicitor's shoulder would have shown the seeker for information that the defendant in each case was "Tribune Publishing Company et al."

Mr. Eastman Makes Another Plain Statement

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 24, 1889.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] In the controversy now raging over the poor remains of the Tribune Publishing Company's property, it may be difficult in every case to determine what particulars should be treated as personal to myself and what should be regarded as of public interest. But there can be no risk in holding that the fact of bankruptcy, alleged against the Tribune establishment, is one which cannot fail to interest the business community. I have already, in a former publication, said on this head what I felt prompted by a sense of honor to say; and I now return to the subject only because it appears that I am challenged thereto by an editorial reference in the Tribune of today. This reference is as follows:

"The utter insincerity of the statements published in yesterday's TIMES and attributed to Col. Eastman is shown in the fact that the gentleman named took an option on a controlling interest in the stock of the Tribune Company three weeks ago at its full face value. For two weeks he made strenuous efforts to raise money for its purchase, and assured the friends to whom he looked for assistance that he had the utmost confidence in the future of the Tribune, both as a newspaper and a profitable investment. He had precisely the same knowledge of its affairs at that time that he possesses today."

From this extract it appears that the Tribune people have not the courage to attempt a vindication of their assets, but think it sufficient to attack my sincerity in showing those assets to be either fictitious or false.

There are three downright falsehoods in the above extract, but without stopping to enumerate them, permit me to say that I never had an "option" on a controlling interest in the stock of the Tribune, "at its full face value," or at any other figure whatsoever. Explanation: Mr. Payne did, about two weeks ago, inform me that a considerable sum of money must be brought into the business or it would have to stop, "and that," in his inelegant and unclassic language, "d—d soon." He said Boyce was a detriment to the concern, and he would like to see him out; and wouldn't I—he made an affecting appeal—find among my friends some one or more men to buy his stock? I did devote some portion of three or four days to that end, but I made no representations that were not true. The only two men I talked with, who indicated a willingness to consider a favorable offer—I beg their pardon for mentioning their names—were Mr. Nimmocks, late of the Minneapolis Journal, and a capitalist, and Mr. D. Gilbert Dexter, also a practical newspaper man, and a man of property. I stated to those gentleman the amount of the Tribune's debts, and also that the office had sufficient material with which to get out the paper. I further made known to them my opinion that with intelligent, attentive and honest business management, the Tribune could yet be made a success. I said that and no more. Mr. Payne had not then elaborated his wonderful table of assets; he had not then revealed the fact to me that he did not know there is a wide difference between assets for conversion in an emergency into money and assets that are necessary or convenient in the carrying on of the business of publishing a newspaper. I am, sir, etc.,

FRANCIS A. EASTMAN.

Mr. Snell's Voluntary Testimony.

Editor Evening Express: Inasmuch as a certain newspaper in this city [the Tribune], in which I am sufficiently unfortunate to be interested by reason of being a stockholder in the company owning and publishing it, is seeking to create the impression in this community that, in my efforts to secure my rights, I am acting under the direction and in the interest of Col. H. G. Otis, I wish to do this gentleman the justice by equal publicity of my emphatic assertion that I am acting for and in behalf of myself only, without reference to the interests of other parties, and that I have no acquaintance with Col. Otis, and never exchanged one word with him upon any subject whatever. C. M. SNELL.

A SAD CASE.

Singular Devotion of a Daughter to Her Drunken Father.

A peculiarly sad case of marital misery and domestic infelicity came to light at the police station yesterday. Some weeks ago a Dr. Churchill, accompanied by his wife and daughter, the latter about 18 years of age, arrived in this city from Kansas. The family, while not in absolute destitution, were in anything but a good financial condition. They rented rooms in a house on Cincinnati street, and in a few days the tongues of all the neighbors on the block were wagging about the new arrivals. Churchill was a hard drinker, and when he would go on his sprees his daughter would leave home and follow him about to care for him, remaining out with him all night, and occupying the same room. The actions of the singular pair were so suspicious that complaint was made to police headquarters, and Chief Cooney and Detective Marsh went to the house, where they met Mrs. Churchill, who satisfied the officer that the talk of the neighbors was without foundation, so far as any criminal relations were concerned. The poor woman was greatly humiliated over the affair, and confessed that she was not treated right, either by her husband or daughter, but she was powerless to help herself. On this statement, the matter was dropped until yesterday morning, when Churchill was arrested on San Fernando street in a beastly state of intoxication, and brought to the police station, where he was locked up. He was accompanied by his daughter, and Chief Cooney took the girl into his private office, where he had a long talk with her. The girl took the matter very coolly, and did not seem at all put out by the affair. She said that she and her father had occupied a room together on Los Angeles street Wednesday night in a lodging-house, but that he had slept on the floor, while she occupied the bed. When questioned as to why she left her home and followed her father about the streets, she said she thought more of him than she did of her mother, because he had always been kinder to her, and that her mother did not treat her right. The Chief sent for Mrs. Churchill, and when she told her story Churchill was released on condition that he would go home and sober up. He agreed to this and left the station in company with his wife and daughter. The man appears to be a slave of drink, and when under the influence of liquor leaves his home and wanders about the streets. It is a strange case and has caused a great deal of talk in the neighborhood where the family reside.

RABBI SCHRIEBER.

Farewell Resolutions of the B'nai B'rith.

Rabbi Schrieber, who for years past has presided over the destinies of the prosperous congregation B'nai B'rith of this city, quitted his labors here yesterday. Today Rev. Schrieber takes his departure for a new field of labor at Little Rock, Ark., to which place he was called some weeks ago.

Incident to a farewell meeting of this much-esteemed gentleman and his congregation, held yesterday, the following resolutions, prepared by the board of trustees of the congregation, were presented and unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, at a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Congregation B'nai B'rith, held January 13, 1889, in the city of Los Angeles, Cal., the voluntary resignation of our much-beloved Rabbi Schrieber was received, he having, to our keen and lasting regret, accepted a call from Little Rock, Ark. Be it therefore said that it is our wish that God shall bless and guard him; that God shall cause His countenance to shine upon him, and be gracious unto him; that the Almighty shall lift up His countenance unto him and grant him peace and gird him with love and strength, health and all measure of contentment, not alone in his newly chosen field of labor, but throughout a useful life.

Now, by Congregation B'nai B'rith, be it

Resolved, that we accept the resignation of our much-beloved rabbi with deepest regret.

Resolved, that in view of the many obstacles our Reverend Rabbi encountered in changing our worship from the "orthodox" to the "reform" faith, we tender him, on the eve of his departure, our heartfelt thanks for his zeal, untiring effort, loving kindness and the good work performed by him while in our midst.

Resolved, that our sincere and best wishes accompany our reverend rabbi and his family to their new home, and may God's blessing be with them wheresoever their lot may be cast.

Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this congregation and that a copy be presented Rabbi Schrieber.

For the congregation:

YOUNG THIEVES.

The Police Unearth a Gang of Pickpockets.

For some days there have been numerous complaints about petty thieveries committed in various parts of the city, and various pockets have been picked, especially during the Sam Jones meetings, when the crowds have been worked as they were leaving the Pavilion. On several occasions wraps have been snatched from ladies' shoulders by the thieves, who have been identified as mere boys. Yesterday afternoon Detective W. H. Russell got a pointer that led to the arrest of the entire gang, who range in age from 12 to 18 years. The headquarters of the gang are at a low lodging-house on San Fernando street, known as the Home, where lodging and a bowl of soup in the morning can be had for 15 cents, and it was at this place where they congregated. It was learned that there were six in the party, and that they always ran together, and with this information the detective started out and soon ran them down on Bellevue avenue. The patrol wagon was telephoned and they were brought to the station, where they were searched and locked up. The boys gave the names of Harry Jenkins, Ralph Williams, Frank Johnson, Dan McDonald, Frank Smith and Eddie Franklin. Two of the boys are especially hard characters and are well-known to the police. McDonald's father is serving a life-sentence in San Quentin for the murder of his wife, and Denman has served one or two terms for petty larceny. In the pockets of one of the boys was found a large bunch of keys and various other contraband articles were also discovered. The cases will come up before Justice Austin this morning.

A Reckless Swearer.

Charley Chung, the complaining witness in the case of the People vs. Ah Yung, on a charge of attempt to murder, was yesterday arrested on a charge of perjury. The case was on trial before Justice Austin, and when Chung took the stand to testify he swore that Yung did not shoot at him. As he swore to a complaint about a week ago that Yung did attempt to kill him in a row in Chinatown, it was a plain case, and Justice Austin at once ordered his arrest and incarceration on the charge of perjury. The reckless manner in which the Chinamen swear in the courts has long been commented upon, and it is more than likely that an example will be made of Chung.

NARROW ESCAPE.

A LANDSLIDE ON THE CALIFORNIA SOUTHERN.

Discovered by a Tramp, Who Builds a Couple of Bonfires and Stays By to Warn Approaching Trains—Resolutions by Grateful Passengers.

A very serious accident came near happening yesterday on the Santa Fé line between this city and San Diego, at a point just the other side of San Juan. As the passenger train from San Diego, which arrived here at 10 o'clock, neared a little bridge a few miles from San Juan, the engineer noticed a fire on the track a few hundred yards ahead of his engine. He and his fireman came to the conclusion that it had been put there by some practical joker, and no attention was paid to it until they got very close, when a pile of dirt was visible on the track a few feet beyond the fire. The engineer at once reversed his engine and whistled down brakes.

Fortunately the train was not running at a rapid rate, and it had been brought almost to a standstill when the cowcatcher struck the dirt.

The passengers received quite a shock, however, and in a few seconds they had left the train and were investigating the causes that led to the sudden stoppage. It seems that a landslide had occurred, and the track was covered for a dozen yards with rocks and dirt.

Fortunately for the passengers a young man who was tramping it to Los Angeles happened along shortly after the slide, and when he saw that he could not remove the obstruction he made up his mind to do all in his power to prevent an accident. He built fires on both sides of the slide and took up his lonely watch, although he was thinly clad and had gone almost 24 hours without a bite of food. He had not long to wait when the train put in an appearance and the lives of a number of people were saved.

The passengers made up a purse of $25 for the poor tramp, who seems to be quite an intelligent young man, and then drew up the following resolution, which will be presented to the Santa Fé Company:

SAN JUAN, Jan. 24, 1889.

WHEREAS, It has come to the knowledge of the passengers whose names are hereto subscribed that one H. D. Bowman, a laborer, in walking the track of the Santa Fé Railroad near the above station, discovered a landslide, and by building a fire on each side of said landslide at about the hour of 6:30 p.m., saved the passenger train and its passengers from great disaster by such act. After donating money ourselves to said Bowman, we respectfully ask the management of said railroad to give the said Bowman employment in said company's service, having satisfied ourselves that he is a worthy object of said company's assistance. Respectfully submitted, D. Jones, chief engineer, U.S.N., U.S.S. Ranger; Charles G. Auhele, Santa Ana; Mrs. W. A. Sutherland, Rochester, N.Y.; Miss Hemphill, Mrs. Hemphill, Hollidaysburg, Pa.; J. S. Carley, S. M. Brown, Newark, N.J.; Mrs. G. Bastheim, San Francisco; S. Nordlinger, Mrs. S. Nordlinger, Los Angeles; Charles Yast, Santa Ana.; George E. Knapp, Hotel del Coronado; H. W. Smith, Westminster Hotel; S. W. Switzer, San Diego, and 22 others.

CUT SHORT.

The Mysterious Fate That Befel the Sergeant's Whiskers.

Sergeant Davis of the police force created quite a sensation yesterday by showing up at the station with his whiskers considerably abbreviated. It is a well known fact that the Sergeant was very proud of his luxuriant hirsute growth, which was the biggest on the force, and the boys could not understand why he had parted with any portion of it, however small, as he has frequently refused requests for hairs as keepsakes. When questioned the Sergeant gave evasive answers, but when pressed he would say that the wind blew through them to his great personal inconvenience or make some similar answer, while to a few confidential friends he imparted the information that he was afraid some drunk might get his fingers entangled in the beloved whiskers, when he would be under the painful necessity of slaying him on the spot. Of course the boys were too polite to contradict the Sergeant, but it was plain that they did not take much stock in his explanations. Finally Chief Cooney was asked about the matter. The Chief said he could not state it positively as a fact, that it might be only a coincidence, but that on Wednesday an old lady had complained at the station that she had lost $60, and that she thought a man with long whiskers had taken it. He did not mean to be personal, but he told the Sergeant about it, and the next thing he knew the whiskers were cut. The boys could think as they pleased, but he himself was of the opinion that the Sergeant's explanation was the proper one. At any rate, the cutting of the whiskers is the all-absorbing topic in police circles, and is likely to be for some time.

Free Labor Exchange.

Many expressions of satisfaction were heard yesterday concerning the establishment of the Free Labor Exchange by Mr. Fehnemann. Every one who desires to employ help of any description after February 1st should take advantage of the exchange.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

Sewage System Discussed.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 20.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] While the City Council is attempting to decide the vital question of which is the best system of sewerage to adopt, a few suggestions from a citizen who has given the subject much study may be permitted. There are now pending before the Council several propositions to take care of the city's sewage, but some of them are so indefinite as to leave it uncertain what method is to be finally adopted by the parties. The two principal plans presented seem to be those of the Pacific Sewage Company, and E. W. Reid & Co., the former presenting the West system of filtration, and the latter the construction of an outfall sewer to a sewer farm, about two miles south of the city, and the distribution of the sewage upon about 2000 acres of land in the vicinity, to which a perpetual right to so dispose of the sewage is to be given by the owners. Whatever plan is accepted, it seems to me that the city ought to adopt no scheme which is not part of a comprehensive system commensurate with the prospective growth and future needs of the city. The natural desire to secure something for nothing ought not to stand in the way of securing a perfect system, and to this end a reasonable outlay will meet with the approval of the people.

In this view of the matter it would seem that a comparison of these two plans must lead to the rejection of the West system, the objections to which are many and obvious.

In the first place, it is a mere makeshift, an experiment, the beginning and ending of which no man knoweth. The Council ought not to spend the people's money on an uncertainty.

Secondly, those who have seen similar systems of filtration in operation in the East under similar conditions to ours must know that even the most careful attention cannot prevent them from creating in the neighborhood of the filtering beds a nuisance that will "smell to heaven." The city is now involved in serious litigation growing out of the sewer nuisance, and judging by the emphatic protest in Sunday's TIMES the adoption of the West system will be "getting out of the frying pan into the fire," and will entail upon the people the needless expense of a long series of long and tedious law-suits. But even if the property owners in the vicinity had consented to it, the maintenance of such a system, in the caring for the large volume of sewage flowing through the filtering beds and beyond, will be a source of large expense.

The demand for water below the city, even when filtered, is confined to a much more limited area than is generally supposed, and its sale by the city never has been and never will be a source of profit.

The most serious objection is that it is not the part of any well defined plan to meet the future wants of the city, and will be a comparatively useless expenditure of money.

On the other hand, the plan proposed by Reid & Co. seems to have several points of advantage. First, it proposes to carry the sewage to a point far enough away from the city to prevent it from becoming a nuisance to our citizens, and disposes of it in a place where the people want it and upon a tract of land large enough to prevent any complaint, and to take care of all sewage for all time. Secondly, it is on the way to the sea, by an easy grade, and, if it is deemed advisable in the future to build an outfall sewer to the sea, this will form a natural part of such a system.

If the ocean sewer be the only plan that seems to commend itself to the people generally as the final solution of the problem, any money spent in this direction will be well spent. A hundred thousand dollars spent in constructing an outfall sewer such as Reid proposes, which will become part, the only true plan will commend itself to public favor, will dispose of the sewer question for many years and will relieve the taxpayers alike from the large expense of building the ocean sewer all at once and the levying of needless taxes for an empirical experiment.

It would seem that when the city has an opportunity to dispose of its entire sewerage within two miles of the city in a matter satisfactory to every one, at a comparatively small expense, it is the part of wisdom to adopt it.

TAXPAYER.

Against High License.

SANTA ANA, Jan. 20.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] In your issue of January 20th, under the title of "Burglary, Saloons and Prohibition," you accuse the Prohibs of declaring, "Give us all we ask or nothing, we want no high license; we want prohibition, and we will vote for nothing short of it." And again, clasping hands with the Democracy, "We will stand together and vote down any proposition for the suppression of the saloon evil that doesn't wipe them out altogether."

Now, since the campaign is over, Harrison elected in spite of Democracy, Prohibition, American party, Union Labor, and all other opponents, the saloon will still continue, and you, with all other patriotic citizens, compelled to meet and face the problem of its elimination from the political and social life, would it not be well to allow the Prohibitioniste to state themselves what they believe and favor?

(1.) They are in favor of any innocent measure to destroy, cripple, suppress, restrict or weaken the liquor traffic.

Second — They are opposed to high license, because (a) they believe it is a sin to license an evil; (b) the license money becomes a bribe to taxpayers which they are afterward unwilling to relinquish, and (c) the restriction of high license is like the restriction of the waters of the Mississippi by the jetties at its mouth—it narrows and deepens the channel so that when the stream of intoxicants formerly bore many light, weak crafts, it now supports a few huge and powerful monopolies.

Third—They assert that the statistics from high license, low license and no license districts prove the failure of high license as a restrictive measure and its balefulness as a corrupting influence.

Fourth—They challenge any one to publish these statistics, and rest the truth or falsity of his theories upon them.

Mrs. Chamberlain (née Endicott) got the first glimpse of her handsome young stepson, Austen, last week, and seemed much pleased with him. The young man went up to London to meet his father on the latter's arrival from the continent, and to welcome his new stepmother to England. All three went down to Birmingham in a private saloon carriage, and no one knew that Mrs. Chamberlain was in the country till the servants at Highbury spread the news around the neighborhood.

ARMY ORDERS.

Col. Grierson Reads His Subordinates a Lecture.

The orders from Army Headquarters in this city now bear the attestation: "By order of Col. Grierson. William J. Volkman, Assistant Adjutant-General."

Circular No. 1, dated January 21st, is as follows:

During the 30 days ending January 14th inst., no less than 60 official communications received at these Headquarters from 13 of the 18 posts in this department, have had to be returned for completion or for correction of mistakes which might have been avoided.

This average has not sensibly changed for some time, and if maintained throughout the department would amount to nearly a thousand such cases per annum, each shortcoming involving unnecessary labor for every person through whose hands such papers must pass.

While the foregoing remarks do not apply to all posts in the department, as now garrisoned, the evil has become so great as to require immediate remedy. Some of the neglects have been plainly inexcusable. The attention of all officers is therefore called to the need of greater care, promptness and accuracy in preparing papers forwarded to these headquarters, especially those intended for transmission to superior authority.

Special Orders No. 7: Troop E, Tenth Cavalry, is ordered from Ft. Grant to San Carlos, relieving Troop H, Tenth Cavalry, which will return to its station at Ft. Apache.

Company G, Twenty-fourth Infantry (Johnson's,) will proceed from Ft. Apache to Ft. Thomas and there take station.

Capt. J. B. Kerr, Sixth Cavalry, is ordered to Ft. Union, N. M., to inspect cavalry horses.

Veterinary Surgeon Fred Foster, Tenth Cavalry, will proceed to Ft. Union, N. M., to inspect cavalry horses.

Lieut. H. C. Keene, Jr., Twenty-fourth Infantry, will proceed to San Carlos and report to the commanding officer for duty with Company C, Twenty-fourth Infantry, during the temporary absence of Capt. Wessells.

First Lieut. Cunliff H. Murray and Second-Lieut. Letcher Hardeman, Fourth Cavalry, are detailed additional members of the general court martial convened by paragraph 3, special orders No. 137.

CHEAP LAND! -:- GOOD LAND!

Dr. E. T. Barber of Lancaster, Antelope Valley, Los Angeles county, Cal., offers 5,000 acres of land for sale, in tracts of 20 acres and upwards, at $5 to $50 per acre, with liberal terms and title guaranteed.

This valley has raised the premium wheat of the world; sugar beets at the rate of 21½ tons to the acre; barley 5,000 pounds; three tons; eight crops of alfalfa in one year; parsnips seven inches in diameter, and is competent to compete with Spain for raisins and France for champagne.

All this land offered can be covered with mountain water, and has good surface and artesian water, and much of it has a subsoil irrigation.

The railroad facilities are good; the Southern Pacific railroad now crosses it, and three other great railroads are expected to do so in the near future.

Climate good, no cyclones, blizzards, fogs or malaria.

Antelope Valley is the hope of the poor, a boon to men of moderate means, and a heaven by home-seeking business men.

THE TIMES ANNUAL.

THE TIMES Annual for 1889 is now on sale to the trade and the general public. It may be purchased from the news agents, at the bookstores, or singly and in quantities at the TIMES office.

It is a 56-page publication, equivalent in bulk of contents to a 200-page book, chock full of valuable and interesting matter. It is specially adapted for sending to friends at a distance, who desire information regarding this section, its compilation having been undertaken with special reference to this purpose. The sending of one copy is better than the writing of one hundred letters. It contains a carefully prepared statement of Southern California's many advantages and few drawbacks, together with a complete exposition of our resources.

Following are the prices of the Annual:

Single copies (in wrappers, postage prepaid)	.15
2 copies (in wrappers, postage prepaid)	.25
10 copies (in wrappers, postage prepaid)	$ 1.00
25 copies (in bulk)	2.50
50 copies (in bulk)	5.00
100 copies (in bulk)	8.00
1000 copies (in bulk)	80.00

The rate of postage on THE TIMES Annual is two cents for each copy. This can be saved by ordering through the office, which pays on the matter by the pound.

IT seems to be generally agreed that no old world government will be permitted to complete the Panama Canal.

NOBODY would have suspected it, but it turns out to be a fact that Undertaker McBratney is an able editor. He is now engaged in editing the Trombone.

GEN. LEW WALLACE wants the mission to Rome. He has long been compiling matter and making researches regarding the historical characters of the Eternal City.

EUROPEAN diplomatic circles continue to be much excited over the Samoan question. The German opposition press comments severely on the colonial policy of the German Government.

ONCE more the Oklahoma "boomers" have been turned out of the Oklahoma country, over six hundred families having been driven out. The persistency with which people will continue to crowd into a section where they have no legal rights is remarkable.

TO G. HAMILTON GRIFFIN, M. D., (in prison), Victoria, B. C.—SIR: Get a pardon or a leave of absence, and come back to Los Angeles, quick, to look after your laurels as premier fakir of the boundless West, for you are in danger of losing them teetotally.

THE conundrum now agitating legal circles, squares and triangles is: Which outranks the other, a receiver or an undertaker, when both are in charge of a bankrupt print-shop? The conundrum is respectfully referred to Messrs. Lewis and McBratney to be argued out.

A CORRESPONDENT asks the meaning of the new slang phrase, "In the soup." THE TIMES never uses slang, but we learn that when a party gets caught in robbing his associates, or a personal "orgin" gets hung up in the courts, they are said to be "in the soup." See?

THE Evening Express is in error. There is no "Times-Tribune" imbroglio on now. It is a Tribune imbroglio pure and simple—an internal fight in the Tribune office, because some of its stockholders and creditors have refused to be robbed. It is well to use intelligent discrimination in speaking of things.

OWNERS of business property, who continue to exact unreasonable rents, should remember that it is wiser to yield a little now than to be forced to yield a great deal during the slack season next summer. Many of the rents at present charged for stores in the business quarter are such that no honest merchant can afford to pay.

GEN. HARRISON continues to be overrun with importunate visitors, most of whom are ready to give him points on the art of cabinet-making. Meantime, the General maintains his usual serenity, reticence and urbanity. He is very indignant at the reports that he was elected through the influence of boodle, and that he was aware of it.

DR. PARKER, the celebrated London preacher, is about to institute religious services, where smoking will be allowed, hoping thereby to induce workingmen to attend. The competition for custom among the Los Angeles shoe stores is as nothing, compared with that which is carried on by the church organizations of the world for the patronage of sinners.

A Bad Bill.

We have several times taken occasion to indorse the proposition to establish in London an exhibit of California products, as suggested by Mr. Lubin of Sacramento. We have not changed our views on the subject in the least, but it must, of course, be understood that the scheme shall be conducted in a straightforward, business-like manner, for the benefit of the whole State, and not for that of a few private individuals.

The extreme fervor with which certain journals in the central part of the State have recently been pushing this project has led us to suspect that there might be "a nigger in the fence," and this suspicion has been confirmed by the text of the bill introduced by Senator Moffitt of Alameda for the purpose of inaugurating an exhibition of California products in London. This bill, as at present constructed, is very weak, and places around the Commissioners no restraints whatever. It gives them power to do as they please, without holding them responsible to any one. It does not provide them with any set duties, but grants them a free, roving commission, with unlimited powers. The Controller of State must draw five warrants, at stated intervals, for $50,000 each, in favor of these Commissioners, and quarterly reports of the receipts and disbursements are to be filed with the Secretary of State and annual reports with the Governor. Moreover, the bill makes the Commissioners the selection of the Senate and Assembly.

Commenting on this remarkable bill, the Sacramento Bee observes:

We very much fear that across this bright project for advertising and benefiting California an attempt will be made to cast the shadow of partisan politics. And the State would be very lucky, indeed, if worse than mere partisanship in the matter did not result from the acts of a commission so framed. We trust that none of the distinguished citizens who have had this London Exhibition work in hand are responsible for the birth of this bill, for, in its present condition, it certainly is one which the people could not conscientiously approve. Let this business be done in a thoroughly business manner. The idea of a London exhibit, so far as it has been discussed, seems to be recommended by good arguments, and it certainly has received a strong indorsement from those organizations most identified with the State's interests and resources. The promoters of the plan themselves have urged that politics in no way be allowed to enter into it, and they were equally sincere in desiring a proper disbursement of the funds under the direction of responsible commissioners with a standing in their communities for business and executive ability, and a knowledge of the State's resources and possibilities. A commission elected by the Legislature is not at all likely to be composed of the material desired, and place-hunting politicians will only squander the appropriation without securing the end sought. It would be better to allow the non-political organizations that have fostered the enterprise to nominate the commissioners, or allow the Governor to appoint them.

It will indeed be a thousand pities if scheming politicians are permitted to kill this promising plan for the advertising of our products, resources and advantages to a people who have unlimited means to buy what we grow and invest their money in needed enterprises. Surely, we might expect that the greedy leeches who feast upon the blood of the body politic might spare this one enterprise, from feelings of self-interest, if from no higher motives. Better, however, that the exhibit should not be made at all than that the money should be used to provide a junketing trip for men who have deserved nothing of the country, and would do us neither good nor credit at the British Capital.

Our Defenseless Coast.

Now that matters have become so serious at Samoa, and the possibility of a rupture between this country and Germany is being discussed, the question of our coast defenses will undoubtedly come to the front. It is notorious that, while very little has been done for the country at large in the direction of military defenses, the Pacific Coast has been specially neglected in this regard.

Brig.-Gen. Miles, the new commander of this military division, is making earnest efforts to secure appropriations for the coming year which will enable the carrying out of many needed repairs and improvements in the equipment of the division. Some time since he secured statements from Quartermaster Alex. J. Perry regarding amounts appropriated for this division since 1885. These show that out of $740,000 appropriated by the Government, only $22,353 have been allotted to this division, notwithstanding the remote stations. Moreover, out of $2,163,937 appropriated during the same time for the construction of military posts, only $10,000 has been appropriated for the military service west of the Rocky Mountains.

This statement was forwarded to the Adjutant-General of the Army, with an indorsement by Gen. Miles, earnestly requesting that fully one-third of the present year's appropriation be allotted to this division. Following this, a long letter was addressed to the Adjutant-General, calling attention of the authorities to the defenseless condition of the Pacific Coast, and the imperative necessity of appropriations. Gen. Miles shows that at the entrance to Puget Sound, where the fleets of the whole world could float in security, not a shovelful of earth has been turned, nor a company of troops stationed, although it could easily be defended. At present the harbor, together with the terminus of two railroads and the cities of Seattle and Tacoma, are at the mercy of any single naval craft that might enter those waters. Just across the straits the British Government has spent millions of dollars in establishing naval stations and erecting defensive fortifications.

Coming south, it is found that the mouth of the great Columbia River, the gateway of Astoria, Portland and other cities, is only supplied with a few old guns of obsolete pattern, mounted on rotten carriages; that it has no troops and no adequate shelter for them. At the Golden Gate there are fortifications—containing 128 guns, many of obsolete manufacture and mostly worthless—which are not properly garrisoned. At the harbors of Monterey, San Pedro and San Diego there is not a single gun in position, nor an artillery soldier stationed there. A foreign war vessel could capture the coast terminals of our railroads and do very much as it pleased along the coast of Southern California. Gen. Miles makes the following suggestions:

Believing it is not the intention of the Federal Government that the western coast should be entirely abandoned, or that the property of its citizens, amounting to hundreds of millions of dollars in value, be jeopardized through the lack of proper harbor defenses which now place the cities of the Pacific seaboard in position to invite attack from any fourth or fifth rate power that might be pitted against the United States, I recommend that $100,000 be appropriated to construct suitable buildings for the accommodation of garrisons necessary to defend the entrance to Puget Sound; $100,000 for the construction of suitable buildings at the entrance of the Columbia River; $200,000 for properly garrisoning the troops required to defend the harbor of San Francisco, and that $100,000 be appropriated for the buildings at San Diego, Cal. The harbors between San Francisco and San Diego may be left for future consideration.

This, with exception of the last sentence, we can cordially indorse. We do not, however, think that the defense of San Pedro, the gateway to Los Angeles, should be "left for future consideration." Otherwise Gen. Miles's recommendations are thoroughly to the point and should receive the immediate and careful attention of the Government.

THE paragraph in yesterday's TIMES, denying a charge made by the Tribune, was not made so clear or definite as was intended. It should have been stated that neither the editor of THE TIMES, nor anybody else connected with THE TIMES, either wrote, or sent, or made a proposition ot support, or any other proposition to a prominent Democratic official, or to any other Democrat, in consideration of such Democrat's help to be given in the work of destroying the Tribune. In short, the assertion of the Tribune was and is a wilful, deliberate, absurd and conscious lie, and the author of it a proved liar and a convicted scoundrel. We may add that there is no occasion for any effort on the part of this paper in the direction indicated. The Tribune is entirely equal to the task of self-destruction.

IT was a very, very weak and futile charge that the reckless Tribune made yesterday when it alleged that the editor of THE TIMES sought to possess, or to aid in getting possession of, any of the Tribune Company's paper, directly or indirectly, remotely or contingently. We are constrained by a regard for the perpendicular truth to deny One-Dollar Reputation Boyce's charge, and to again say to him, gently but firmly, that the truth is not in him; and we say it "without fear, favor or affectation, equivocation or mental reservation, or the hope of reward," to quote the beautiful language of the cast-iron oath that we used to take in the old army days of 1864.

THE annual meeting of the California Fruit Union shows a satisfactory condition in the last season's business. The net return to the fruit-growers on their eastern shipments was about two cents a pound, and the cash receipts of the union were over three-quarters of a million dollars.

WHAT big land owner in this section is going to start the ball a-rolling by planting his land to crops, and thus keeping a portion of the money at home which is now sent abroad?

AMUSEMENTS.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.—The World Against Her was given again last night to a very fair house.

Mr. and Mrs. Grismer are becoming known here, as they deserve, and, while their choice of plays may not always be of the best, their parts are certain to be done with careful attention and a great deal of really good art.

By request the Grismer Company will repeat Forgiven for Saturday evening January 26. Tonight is the last time of The World Against Her.

THE KIRALFYS.—Next Monday night The Black Crook will be given, with the usual gorgeous accidents and accessories, under the personal direction of Imre Kiralfy. The world has grown since "the Black Crook" was a phrase of sin, and to behold it to be a sinner, and now everybody goes, enjoys the music, the marchings, the grouping and the dancing, and comes away none the worse.

LOS ANGELES THEATER.—The Boston Quintette Club, so long and so well-known as among the best performers of good and classical chamber music, will give two concerts in the Los Angeles Theater on Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week. The programme, which is given below, is a fairly representative one, containing selections both entirely classical and some of a lighter type. The soloist will, no doubt, give pleasure, as the club is noted for its excellent choice in that direction. One omission is noted on the programmes and announcements sent out to the people at large, the price of seates is not mentioned, and one is obliged to go to some music store to inquire. Seats will be sold from 50 cents to $1.50, according to the location. The following is the programme for Monday evening:

PART I.

Quintetto, Op 5, Allegro (Svendsen).
Flute solo, "Fantaisie" (Terschak)—Mr. Oscar Hentschel.
Scene and rondo (Venzano)—Miss Anne Carpenter.
(a) "Traumerei" (Schumann). (b) "Andante Scherzando" (Mendelssohn)—Quintette.
Violin solo, "Souvenir d'Haydn" (Leonard)—Mr. John F. Rhodes.

PART II.

Midnight scene, "Midnight Toll, March of the Ghosts, Conspiracy, Serenade, Disappearance" (Brisson)—Arranged for Quintette.
Violoncello solo, "Hungarian Caprice" (Dunkler)—Mr. Louis Blumenberg.
Quartette "Andante Cantabile, Op. 11" (Tschaikowsky)
Song "If Thou Didst Love Me" (Denza)—Miss Anne Carpenter.
Quintette, "Badinage" (Gillet).

A Quiet Day at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 24.—The day at Gen. Harrison's was quiet and devoid of any special new feature. A delegation of colored men appointed by the Kentucky Colored Convention, to extend to Gen. Harrison the congratulations of the colored people of the South, called in the afternoon. They confined their political talk to expressing their hope that the colored Republicans would be adequately recognized.

Alexander Badlam, an old Californian, stopped over en route home from the East, and paid his respects to the President-elect. His visit was entirely social.

Dudley's Libel Suits.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The suit brought by W. W. Dudley against the New York Times, World, Evening Post, and Commercial Advertiser, claiming $25,000 damages from each paper, for publishing the now historical "blocks of five" letter, alleged to have been written by Dudley, came up in the Supreme Court Chambers, before Judge Patterson, today. A motion was made by Col. Bliss, Dudley's lawyer, to vacate the order for his client to be examined. Argument was deferred for a week.

Phelps's Gain.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—In the recount for Congressman from the Fifth District, Phelps has made a net gain of 14, with 60 precincts yet to be counted.

By Telegraph to the Times.

DUBLIN, Jan. 24.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The trial of William O'Brien on the charge of conspiracy began today at Carrick-on-Suir. The Government had issued a proclamation forbidding any demonstrations welcoming O'Brien, but despite this action 20,000 persons gathered around the courthouse. Six hundred policemen charged the crowd, using their batons freely, but were unable to disperse the gathering. The excitement was feverish.

Before the trial, while O'Brien was striving to pass through the crowd to enter the courthouse, he was seized by a police inspector and dragged 30 yards. The people, maddened by this, pressed forward to rescue him. The police, however, repulsed the crowd. Timothy Healy, who stepped forward to aid O'Brien, was met by a bayonet leveled at his breast. A number of reporters were maltreated. O'Brien complained to the Judge that the police were attempting to incite a bloody riot.

O'BRIEN SKIPS OUT.

When the case for the crown had been presented, Healy, on behalf of the defendant, applied for subpœnas for Lord Salisbury and Balfour, both of whom, he asserted, had made speeches similar to those of O'Brien.

The Court refused to issue the desired subpœnas. The spectators in the courtroom received the decision with murmurs, and the magistrates ordered the galleries cleared.

While this was being done O'Brien exclaimed: "I'll clear out also," and started for the door. The magistrates shouted: "Stop him," and a constable grabbed O'Brien. After a sharp struggle, O'Brien, with the aid of some of the spectators, managed to escape to the street with no worse damage than a torn coat. An immense crowd escorted O'Brien through the town. The police used their batons without mercy upon the people who responded with stones and sticks. During the mêlée Mr. O'Brien was struck violently in the breast with a rifle stock. Scores of persons were injured.

The Court issued a warrant for the arrest of O'Brien and then adjourned. The police, with fixed bayonets, are patrolling the streets of the town.

Twenty persons received bayonet thrusts and some of them were dangerously wounded. At least forty others were more or less seriously injured by the batons of the police. O'Brien's location is not known. It is thought he will not appear in court tomorrow.

MORE RIOTING.

At the trial of Father McCarthy, charged with inciting boycotting a large crowd which had congregated about the courthouse, was charged by a force of 200 police. The crowd used stones and bottles against the police, 13 of whom were injured. One of the wounded policemen will die, and three others are in a dangerous condition.

When the cases of James Lawrence Carey, member of Parliament for North Kildare, and Dennie Kilbride, member of Parliament from South Kerry, who are charged with offenses under the Crimes Act, were called in court at Kildare today the accused failed to answer. Warrants for their arrest were issued.

The Express (Conservative) asserts that the London Times has secured fresh and important documents from the United States in support of its charges against the Parnellites.

POPULAR PHELPS.

The Minister Banqueted by the Lord Mayor of London.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The Lord Mayor of London gave a banquet this evening in honor of Phelps, United States Minister. There were 250 guests, including Lord Rosebery, Lord Salisbury, Lord Coleridge, and many literary and scientific celebrities. The Lord Mayor, in proposing a toast to Phelps, expressed sincere satisfaction at being able to affirm that the presence of Phelps in England had been appreciated by the whole nation.

Phelps said that during his four years' stay in England he had felt how kindly were the sentiments Englishmen entertained toward his countrymen. His relations with successive English governments had always been fortunate and cordial. The existence of good feeling between the people of Great Britain and America has the assurance of continued harmony. Misunderstandings might arise between England and America, although both governments were anxious to avoid differences, but such misunderstandings would all prove capable of friendly solution.

Lord Salisbury referred to the distinguished assemblage as testifying to the esteem in which Phelps was held.

Sir Frederick Leighton, president of the Royal Academy, also spoke. He eulogized Phelps, and predicted a great future for American art. The Earl of Dunraven sent a message of deep regret at inability to attend.

All the papers comment on the banquet, and all except the Standard speak of Phelps in kind and eulogistic vein. The Standard, however, adopts its old tone, and thinks the banquet should have been given to Lord Sackville. It heartily approves the demonstration to Phelps, as the man, but not the Minister. "Diplomatic relations with America," it says, "are sadly out of gear, and Phelps certainly had a hand in bringing this about. The recent action of the American Government in the Sackville matter seems to render the banquet inopportune if not indecorous."

THE OUTRAGE INQUIRY.

Efforts to Saddle Irish Crime on the Parnellites.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] At the hearing before the Parnell Commission today, Capt. Slack traced the outrages in Ireland to the league and to the inflamed language of Irish members of the House of Commons, priests and other leaders. There was no abnormal distress in his district. He thought outrages would not have occurred had they not been instigated by the league.

On cross-examination Capt. Slack said that as a rule the Irish leaders did not denounce outrages, but there might have been exceptions.

Inspector Rogers deposed that he searched the house of Mary O'Connor, secretary of the Ladies' Land League at Athlone, and found several letters from Anna Parnell, with reference to the formation of a ladies branch for the relief of evicted tenants. Miss O'Connor's accounts disclosed expenditures for the defense of prisoners charged with outrages.

Sir Henry James announced that he intended to read extracts from speeches produced in court.

Justice Hannen, seeing that Sir Henry had a pile of speeches before him a foot high, entreated counsel to consider how to shorten the reading of them.

Sir Henry James proceeded to read extracts from a speech by Biggar in October, 1880. Biggar, interrupting, said he would not have the extracts read yet, and Sir Henry was compelled to accede.

MADRID, Jan. 24.—A man about to throw a petard into the office of the Minister of Justice today was taken into custody.

RAILWAY PRESIDENTS.

They Propose to Combine to Stop Rate-cutting.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—The meeting of western railway presidents to consider the recent agreement made in New York for the purpose of putting a stop to rate-cutting and other disturbing practices by secondary executive officers, was called this morning at 10:30 with closed doors. President Marvin Hughitt of the Northwestern occupied the chair.

President Parkins of the Burlington road was absent, and the Wisconsin Central was without a representative. As neither of these roads has yet given its adhesion to the agreement, the meeting was at the outset handicapped by the fact that, however much in accord they might be, their deliberations could not be conclusive. Seventeen of the 21 lines invited to the conference were represented. Vice-president Stone was there for the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy. The Illinois Central was not represented. Nothing but informal discussion was had at the morning session.

The territory to be covered by the proposed association lies west, northwest and southwest of Chicago, and the agreement, before it becomes binding, must be signed by the 21 railroads traversing that territory. The Illinois Central, Wisconsin Central, St. Louis and San Francisco and Kansas City, Ft. Scott and Gulf lines were not represented today. All the afternoon session was consumed in discussion of amendments intended to make the agreement acceptable to all the roads concerned. There was a wide difference of opinion on some points, notably the question of arbitration. The meeting will continue in daily session, excepting Sundays, until an agreement is arrived at and the association organized.

ARIZONA SOLONS.

They Pass a Bill to Make Phœnix the Capital.

PRESCOTT (Ariz.), Jan. 24.—[By the Associated Press.] The deadlock in the House was broken today by Jordan of Maricopa leaving the Democratic caucus and appearing in the House, thus forming a quorum and allowing the Republicans to effect an organization. J. Y. T. Smith of Phœnix was elected Speaker; J. W. Wentworth, Yavapai, chief clerk. The Governor's message favors Statehood for the Territory.

The bill to remove the capital of Arizona from Prescott to Phœnix passed the House today by a vote of 14 to 10. The bill passed the Council this afternoon, and awaits the signature of the Governor.

The Pullman Company's Deal.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The negotiations between officials of the Pullman Palace Car Company and the Union Palace Car Company, which absorbed the Mann Boudoir Car Company and the Woodruff Palace Car Company, were closed today, and an agreement executed by which the Pullman Company obtained control of the opposition corporations. The purchase involved an expenditure of about $2,500,000, and leaves the Pullman Company in control of over 150,000 miles of road for palace car service. The Wagner Company is now Pullman's only competitor.

His Pardon to Be Revoked.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—Jacob Wilkerson, a colored man who was sent to San Quentin in 1872 for 45 years for the murder of a woman in this city, was pardoned in 1876 on condition that he leave the State and never return. He went at once to Honolulu, but returned here. A few days he was recognized by the police and warned to leave. He was arrested last night on a charge of drunkenness and is now in the City Prison. The police will ask Gov. Waterman to revoke Wilkerson's pardon.

Wary and Winsome Wanamaker.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 24.—John Wanamaker returned today. He was the escort as far as this city of Mrs. Gen. Harrison and her daughter, Mrs. McKee. The ladies are on their way to New York, where they expect to spend a couple of weeks in shopping and sight-seeking. Wanamaker skillfully evaded every question plied to him with the object of ascertaining the result of his visit to Gen. Harrison.

A Heavy Fine.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Jules Laverne, a Frenchman, was brought to the city this morning from San Francisco, charged with sending obscene letters through the mails. The complainant is Mrs. Jeanette de Baere, who keeps a boarding-house in San Francisco. The letters were mailed in Chicago. Laverne admits his guilt, and was fined $2000. In default of payment he went to jail.

Hopeful Views About the New Navy.

Congressman Burnes's Remains Taken to Missouri.

San Pedro Harbor Gets a Small but Needed Plum.

Women Suffragists Given a Hearing on the Proposed Sixteenth Amendment—Heavy Appropriations for the Consular Service—Other Matters at the Capital.

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—[By the Associated Press.] In the report upon the Naval Appropriation Bill the House Committee on Naval Affairs summarizes the present condition and future prospects of the navy of this country. The report says: With regards to the new navy.

Congress seems to have settled upon the policy of an appropriation toward its construction of about $6,000,000 per annum. Your committee believes that this will build up the navy as fast as prudence dictates. Our Navy Department, and our ship-builders are utilizing as far as may be knowledge acquired from the costly experience of other nations, but they must acquire experience of their own. Too great haste on the part of the Government would inevitably result in confusion and waste most probably in combination instead of competition among ship-builders. Beside, it would be an easy matter in this country to build ships more rapidly than we could supply them with armament of domestic manufacture. Satisfactory progress is being made by private contractors for supplying heavy gun and armor plate forgings, and for rapid-fire machine guns, and it will be seen that Congress, by the passage of the bill we report, will have taken the last step necessary to render the Government absolutely independent of the world in the matter of building and equipping a navy. It has been the constant aim of the committee and of the department to provide ships the best of their class and guns equal to any in the world. There is ample competition among bidders for the construction of engines and machinery, and in this matter American enterprise and ingenuity seem likely to lead the world.

A PLUM FOR SAN PEDRO.

The Senate Committee on Commerce today authorized Frye to report a number of proposed amendments to the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill for the establishment of additional lighthouses, and among them is $5000 for the San Pedro harbor light station, California.

WOMEN SUFFRAGISTS HEARD.

The reception-room of the Senate wing was crowded this morning with representatives of the National Woman Suffrage Association, which has just closed its annual session in this city, and their friends, who came to present their arguments in behalf of the proposed sixteenth amendment to the Constitution, granting women the right of suffrage. Addresses were made by several women prominent in the cause.

The last executive session of the association was held this afternoon. The officers elected for 1889 are: President, Elizabeth Cady Stanton; vice-president-at-large, Susan B. Anthony; secretary, Rachael F. Avery; treasurer, Mrs. Jane H. Spofford; chairman of Executive Committee, Mrs. Mary W. Sewell. The revised constitution was adopted. The association accepted the plan for a union of the two women suffrage associations.

CONSULAR APPROPRIATIONS.

The Senate Committee on Appropriations concluded its work on the Consular and Diplomatic, Military Academy and Pension Bills. The Consular Bill as it came from the House appropriated $1,427,000. The Senate committee increased the total to $2,050,000. Following are the items of the increase: To protect American interests in Samoa, $500,000; to establish a coaling station at Pagopago, Samoan Islands, $100,000; indemnity of families of Japanese subjects killed or wounded by torpedo practice by the United States gunboat in Japanese waters in 1887, $15,000; consulate at Apia, Samoa, raised to Consulate-General and salary from $2000 to $2500; new consulates established at Caroline Islands and Nogales, Mexico, $1500 each, and salary of the following consulates as named: Nuevo Laredo, $5000; El Paso del Norte, $1000; Piedras Negras, $1000; Santa Matamoras, $500.

THE MONROE DOCTRINE.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs today ordered a favorable report to be made upon the Senate resolution relative to European participation in the construction of the Panama Canal. There was little discussion, the matter having been fully gone into at two previous sessions. The matter is not privileged for consideration under the rules of the House. An effort will be made to have it so.

THE TERRITORIAL QUESTION.

The House Committee on Territories meet tomorrow to determine whether or not action shall be taken this session of Congress on the bill for admission of Utah.

The Senate Committee on Territories is also called for tomorrow, for the purpose of considering the Omnibus Bill, recently passed by the House, for admission of South Dakota and organization of the Territory of North Dakota.

MISSING ELECTORAL MESSENGERS.

Electoral messengers from nine States have not yet arrived. The law requires that the messengers shall deliver the result of voting of their respective States not later than the last Monday in January. This will be next Monday. The States mentioned are California, Colorado, Florida, Oregon, Kentucky, Maine, Nebraska, Nevada and Texas.

THE DEAD CONGRESSMAN.

After the adoption of suitable resolutions on the death of Mr. Burnes of Missouri, the House and Senate both adjourned as a mark of respect.

The remains of Representative Burnes left tonight for St. Joseph, Mo., under escort of a Congressional committee.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.

The Secretary of State has received a cable from the United States Consul at Colon saying that affairs on the isthmus are quiet.

The Senate Pacific Railway Commission will meet Monday next to consider Mitchell's bill providing for ascertainment and funding of the debts of the Central and Union Pacific.

United States Consul Willard at Guaymas, Mex., has sent a dispatch denying the report that a number of American citizens had been killed by Indians near Ortiz.

The White House was handsomely and elaborately decorated tonight for the state dinner by the President in honor of the Diplomatic Corps. Forty-seven covers were laid. The place of honor on the President's right was occupied by Mrs. Romero, wife of the Mexican Minister, and that on the left by Mrs. Carter, wife of the Hawaiian Minister. Mrs. Cleveland had on her right the Minister of Italy and on her left the Secretary of State. The Diplomatic Corps was fully represented.

Gen. Grosvenor, president of the National Union League, has called a meeting of its National Council to assemble here March 2d to consider measures calculated to uphold the incoming national Administration and to strengthen the union of the Republican party, especially in the South.

Guarantors Sued.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Daniel Richter of New York began a suit for $100,000 in the Federal Court against Joseph Frank, formerly of Frank Bros. of New York. In December, 1888, Swann Bros., cattle dealers of Cheyenne, Wyo., contracted with Richter to buy of him 2000 shares of the capital stock of the House Creek Land and Cattle Company. Frank indorsed and guaranteed the contract. Swann Bros. failed and could not make the purchase. Richter now sues Frank as the guarantor.

STATE CAPITAL.

A Committee Coming to Los Angeles

To See How the Branch Normal School Is Run.

Two Reports on the Bill to Send Lawyers to Washington.

San Luis Obispo Granted an Additional Superior Judge—A Proposal to Increase the Stipend of Private Secretary Boruck—State Capital Notes.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 24.—[By the Associated Press.] The Senate Committee on Public Buildings leaves tomorrow for Los Angeles, to inspect the State Normal School at that place.

The bill introduced in the Senate by Mr. Boggs, prohibiting the taxing of migratory flocks of sheep in the counties they pass through, was considered tonight by the Senate Committee on Counties, County Government and Townships, but no conclusion was reached, and the committee adjourned until next Thursday.

The Senate Finance Committee this morning made two reports on the resolution appropriating $5000 to send Hon. John F. Swift and Stephen M. White to Washington to represent the people in the case now before the Supreme Court involving the validity of the Chinese Exclusion Act.

The majority report recommended a substitute appropriating $2500 to pay expenses of the Attorney-General of California, who is directed to proceed to Washington. The minority report favored the original resolution. The Chinese Committee of the Assembly reported favorably on the resolution, and the Assembly referred the bill to the Committee on Ways and Means.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Senate.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 24.—[By the Associated Press.] In the Senate today the Judiciary Committee reported in favor of the valuation of insurance policies, and against the bill increasing the salaries of superior judges of certain counties.

The Agricultural Committee reported in favor of the bill for proper registration of thoroughbred cattle, also of the bill for appropriating money for the State Board of Horticulture.

The Financial Committee reported in favor of the purchase of a portrait of Gov. Waterman.

Majority and minority reports were submitted by the same committee on the bill to appropriate $5000 to send special counsel to Washington to defend the Scott Exclusion Bill.

Bills were introduced as follows:

By Mr. Langford: To regulate the fees of the Secretary of State; also relating to the distribution of swamp lands; also for the formation of reclamation districts.

By Mr. Roth: Giving the charge of registration of voters to county clerks.

By Mr. Pinder: Restricting the owning of real estate by aliens.

By Mr. Moffitt: Increasing the salary of the Governor's private secretary to $4000.

By Mr. Goucher: To purchase certain roads in the Yosemite grants.

By Mr. McComas: To create the county of Pomona.

By Mr. Wilson: Appropriating $700 for Coroner Stanton of San Francisco for the Benhayon inquest; also providing against deception in the sale of dairy products.

By Mr. McDonald: Compelling cableroads to guard against accidents to passengers.

The Senate constitutional amendment, which was reported unfavorably by the Committee on Constitutional Amendments, came up for consideration, and caused a lengthy debate. The bill provides that all persons owning less than $500 worth of property shall be exempt from taxation.

Mr. Heacock of Santa Barbara moved to amend by making the limit $300.

A number of other amendments were offered, but each in turn was voted down, and finally the Tax Bill itself was defeated.

Consideration of constitutional amendment No. 2 was postponed until Tuesday next.

The Senate bill providing for an additional Superior Judge for the county of San Louis Obispo was passed.

Assembly.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 24.—In the Assembly this morning favorable reports were made upon the following bills: Relating to the organization of the National Guard of California into six brigades; providing for the burial of ex-Union soldiers and sailors who may hereafter die in indigent circumstances; relating to collating and publishing the records of California volunteers; concerning the crime of obtaining money or property by false pretenses.

Mr. Crawford reported that the Committee on Education had visited the San José, Berkeley and Lick observatories, and was entitled to mileage for 312 miles. The committee recommends that those in charge of observatories be more courteous to visitors.

Mr. Crawford stated that the committee was not shown through the San José institution or grounds, and knew no more in reference to the observatory than when its members went there. He said he learned from reputable citizens of San José that the treatment extended the committee is accorded to all or nearly all visitors to the observatory.

The report of the committee was made the special order for tomorrow morning.

The committee reported favorably the bills establishing county high schools, and to appropriate money for the hire of a clerk in the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The Committee on Labor and Capital reported favorably on the bills to regulate the duties and obligations between masters and apprentices, relative to the hours of labor of minors and females, providing for proper sanitary conditions of workshops, etc.

The Committee on Hospitals recommended the passage of eight bills relating to the preservation of the public health, and which were introduced at the request of the State Board of Health.

The Committee on Federal Relations presented majority and minority reports on the Assembly concurrent resolution relative to the election of United States Senator. The resolution provides for the election of a Senator by direct vote of the people.

Messrs. Hyde, Culver and Salomon signed the majority report, and Messrs. Renison and Matthews a minority report.

The Judiciary Committee recommended the passage of a bill increasing the number of judges in San Diego county; also providing for the appointment of five Supreme Court commissioners; also the bill for funding the indebtedness of several counties.

Private Secretary Boruck presented a message from the Governor approving the bill appropriating $70,000 for the support of the State Printing office for the fortieth fiscal year.

Bills correcting the eastern boundary line of the State and to regulate the hours of labor for minors and females were passed.

This afternoon the Assembly bill amending the County Government Act, and adding a new section thereto, was read a second time; also Assembly bill amending the act creating a board of bank commissioners.

A concurrent resolution was introduced and adopted asking California's Senators and Representatives in Congress to use their influence to secure the appointment of James A. Waymire as member of the Board of Managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, vice Blanding, deceased.

Mr. Matthews of Tehama introduced a concurrent resolution providing for a committee of seven—three from the Senate and four from the Assembly—to collect information relative to unpaid claims of this State against the United States and all matters involving the good faith of this State toward any persons employed to collect claims of the States. Adopted.

The bill to create the county of Glenn, in Northern California came up for a second reading. After a long discussion the bill was finally made the special order for next Wednesday afternoon, and the Assembly adjourned.

A GIGANTIC STEAL.

An Insurance Company's Agent Embezzles Half a Million.

HARTFORD (Ct.), Jan. 24.—[By the Associated Press.] Col. Jacob L. Green, president of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, made the following announcement this evening. "It has just been discovered that the financial correspondent of this company at Indianapolis, after 16 years of service, is a defaulter. For the past week his accounts have been under investigation and a defalcation has been found. The extreme amount involved is about $500,000. He has restored to the company property which may reduce the actual loss to $400,000. The amount of the loss will not in any degree interfere with its regular dividends nor affect the company's solvency."

The agent is Joseph A. Moore, a leading citizen of Indianapolis, about 45 years old, who has hitherto occupied a high position in that community. He has been speculating. The steal consists of three parts, the principal of loans paid to him by borrowers to be remitted to the company; interest paid to him for the same purpose, and rents collected by him on real estate in his care. The theft of principal and interest is concealed in part by more or less frequent payments of interests on loans, and in part by a most ingenious and consistent series of falsehoods in response to frequent inquiries by the company, representing these borrowers as being in financial difficulty, anxious to struggle on and pay their debt and save their property from foreclosure and confident that they could do it with leniency on the company's part, and promising that they would make payments whenever possible. He continually represented himself as carefully watching these people and doing all he could do to aid them to worry through.

These thefts began at a time when there was a great deal of financial distress in Indianapolis, and when the company not only did what it could to aid borrowers in saving their property, but was compelled to take in a great deal of real estate; and this state of depression came later in Indianapolis than elsewhere, and continued a longer time, so that Moore's statements were entirely consistent with, and apparently a continuous part of, the previous history. Many cases thus in arrear were actually brought out successfully, thus apparently confirming has representations. In the meantime he was constantly remitting for borrowers very large sums of money in a correct manner. His position and reputation and his energy and ability all made it apparently impossible that he could betray so great a trust. This is the only loss through a financial correspondent that the company has ever experienced in 43 years of its career.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 24.—Great astonishment was created in this city tonight, except among a select few who are in the secret, by the announcement that Joseph A. Moore was a defaulter to the extent of $400,000. He is a son of a banker at Madison, Ind. He came to this city 25 years ago. In 1872 he secured the general agency of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, his operations were quite extensive, covering all of this State and portions of Illinois. He was also secretary and treasurer of the Moore Desk Company, and had spent considerable money in fitting up a building for safe-deposit purposes, work on which is now progressing. He was regarded as a safe, successful business man, and his financial standing was not questioned by any one in the city. He is a prominent member and vestryman of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, and his personal habits were unexceptional. All efforts to see him tonight have failed.

A LEGAL ENIGMA.

The Bornemann Embezzlement Puzzling the Lawyers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—[By the Associated Press.] Ex-Cashier Ames and Bookkeeper de Greer testified today for the prosecution in the trial of Bornemann for the embezzlement of $10,000 from the subtreasury in this city. The hypothesis on which District Attorney Carey is conducting the case is that the shortage was caused by the abstraction of the amount named at the change of management of the office in September, 1885. Quite different is the idea of Detective Metzler who investigated the matter by direction of the Department of Justice. His theory is that the shortage was primarily due to payment of two forged checks amounting to $9930 by Bornemann in 1868 at which time C. N. Fulton was sub treasurer.

The Washington authorities held that the loss should be made good, which was done after much delay, the money used to tide over the predicament being subsequently withdrawn, and from that time to this a deficiency existed.

The detective says this view of the matter is the one held at Washington, but that Carey refuses to consider it, and is pressing the prosecution on a presumption which it will be difficult to establish. Metzler has documents which tend to establish his view of the enigma.

The Car Trust Wins.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The car trust has won a great victory in its suit against the Iron Mountain and Southern Railroad Company to recover $859,000. It grew out of an agreement made in 1880 between the trust and Wabash system. By its terms the trust was to supply the rolling stock of the system. The Wabash went into the hands of the Iron Mountain and the agreement was not carried out. Judge Wheeler holds that the car trust is entitled to judgment.

Legitime's Victories Denied.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—It is understood that Gen. Contreas, military attaché of the Haytian Legation, has received a cablegram from Hayti, announcing that Legitime's forces have captured St. Maro and Gonaive, two of Hippolyte's strongholds. Hippolyte's friends say the story is a canard got up by Legitime to aid in negotiating a loan.

Mrs Terry's Application.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—A few weeks ago Mrs. David Terry filed a motion in the Superior Court asking that a receiver be appointed in the estate of the late William Sharon. Today the attorneys for the estate filed an answer in the Circuit Court, giving reasons why one should not be appointed.

Balloting for Senator.

CHARLESTON (W. Va.), Jan. 24.—The Senate and House met in joint assembly at noon and balloted for United States Senator, with the following result: Goff 31, Kenna 17, W. L. Wilson 10; balance scattering. There were 87 votes cast; necessary to a choice, 44.

Disastrous Fire.

JACKSON (Miss.), Jan. 25.—1 a.m.—A serious fire is raging in the business portion of the city and threatened to destroy four of the largest buildings. The fire is just under control.

Had Taken Queer Medicine.

Last evening about 6:30 o'clock a middle-aged, respectable-looking man was noticed standing in front of the plaza hailing passers-by. Officers Comacy and Dunn were attracted by his queer antics, and as soon as they began to talk to him they saw that he was crazy. He was taken up to L. B. Cohn's store and the patrol wagon telephoned for, when he got very violent, insisting that he had "taken the medicine of Jesus Christ," and raised such a row that it took four or five men to hold him. He was first taken to the police station, from which place he was transferred to the County Jail. He gave the name of S. P. Wells, and is evidently crazy on religion and the Salvation Army.

A Family Row.

A family row occurred at No. 11 Turner street, last night, in which William Benner assaulted his brother James, with a deadly weapon. Chief Cooney and Detective Marsh investigated the affair, which resulted in the arrest of William, who was sent up by Officer Merry.

Beat His Wife.

Jacob Voegel was arrested on Main street by Officer Donahue last night and locked up on a charge of battery. Voegel committed an assault on his wife, beating her severely.

THE STACK MURDER.

The Trial of Lanagan Opened Yesterday.

The trial of William Lanagan for the murder of William Stack at San Fernando November 7th occupied the greater part of the attention of Department 2 of the Superior Court yesterday. A great number of witnesses from San Fernando were in attendance, among whom were Henry and Luke Ginn, who were brought down under attachment. The brothers say they know nothing about the affair, as they were 12 miles from the scene of the murder, and they were therefore disposed to ignore the summons of the court, but the bench warrant brought them.

The witnesses examined yesterday were Wee Hing, J. R. Frazier, J. S. Turner, John Smith, Ben Billigas, J. H. Barclay and George M. Holaday.

It was developed in the course of the testimony that Lanagan and Stack had not been on a drunk together on the day of election, as reported, but Lanagan went up from Los Angeles in an intoxicated condition. He opened a window and crawled into the room where Stack was sleeping. He then pulled Stack out of bed and stamped and kicked him, injuring him so badly that he died the next day.

Lanagan, who was in court during the trial, seated near his lawyers, is a low-browed, dark-complexioned man with a brutal cast of countenance. Gage and Roberts appeared for the defense and Deputy District Attorney Donnell for the prosecution. The trial of the case will be continued today.

A STRIKE.

It Might Have Been, but It Is Not.

A TIMES reporter learned yesterday from one of the officers of the Los Angeles Cable Railway Company that the seven or eight conductors who were "let out" last Monday and Tuesday had been the most active agitators for a strike. They called a meeting on Washington street last Saturday night, which failed of any decided results on account of the slim attendance, and the busybodies who wanted to foment trouble set themselves the task of talking the thing up among the men this week. It was in the same manner that the strike of something over a year ago was brought about. This time the managers discovered the game early and nipped it.

It is understood that the only alleged grievance on the part of the men was the new rules and the stricter discipline imposed by the new superintendent.

A LITTLE MISTAKE

Which Was Made by Mr. O'Leary in an Arrest.

Mr. O'Leary keeps a saloon on San Fernando street, and when he indulges in too much of his own bug-juice he is inclined to be quarrelsome. Late Wednesday night, when he was on his way home, he took it into his head that Detective Jennings was following him for no good, and he put the officer under arrest. Jennings submitted gracefully, and started to the police station on a car with his captor. Everything proceeded smoothly until the Pico House was reached, when O'Leary began to declare himself, and finally got so boisterous that Jennings turned the tables on him, put him under arrest and brought him to the station, where he was locked up. He was kept in a cell until this morning, when he was released. O'Leary was the worst-fooled man in town when he found out the box he had got into.

A LOTTERY TICKET.

Another Attempt by the Confidence Fakirs.

Another case of attempted robbery by confidence sharps has turned up. J. Reed of New York, who arrived here on the 16th inst., was walking down Main street, between Third and Fourth, last Wednesday, when he was approached by a well-dressed fellow, who tried to inveigle Reed into a place up stairs, where he wanted to get a successful lottery ticket cashed.

Reed declined to "bite," refusing point-blank to go up stairs with the altogether too fresh young man.

The stranger had met Mr. Reed the day before and scraped an acquaintance in a protracted conversation.

There is a large contingent of these confidence sharps in town, and the police should lose no time in running them down and placing them behind the bars.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

A Memorial Prepared by the Board of Directors.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce was held yesterday afternoon, when the Judiciary Committee, through Judge Haynes, reported two resolutions, which will be put in the form of memorials and sent up to the Legislature, asking that some provision be made for the payment of taxes semi-annually, and also for the repeal of the tax on mortgages. The project for the organization of a new factory employing 300 hands was also informally discussed at some length. Another meeting of the directors was held last night. It is probable that the resolutions will be formally indorsed at the next regular meeting of the chamber.

Almost a Big Fire.

This morning about 12:45 o'clock smoke was seen issuing from the basement of the new United States Hotel, at the corner of Main and Requena streets, occupied as a saloon by Robert Lewin. Officer McKenzie turned in an alarm, and when the engines arrived, which was in a few minutes, the doors were broken in, when the bar was discovered to be in flames. A stream was turned on, and in a few minutes the blaze was extinguished. A strong smell of coal oil was distinguished by those who were at the fire when the doors were broken open, and the matter will be further investigated today. The basement was flooded with water, which will bring the damage up to about $1000. Had the fire not been discovered as soon as it was, there might have been a very serious affair, as there was a number of people in the hotel.

LATER.—Levin was arrested at 2 o'clock this morning on a charge of arson.

Cutting Affray.

Last evening about 6 o'clock a cutting affray occurred at Burlingame's camp at the corner of Eighth street and Central avenue, in which a man named Peter Berlin was stabbed in the shoulder by a Mexican, inflicting an ugly wound. The police office was notified and the injured man brought in, when his wounds were dressed by Police Surgeon Choate. Detective Russell and Officer Mackel started out on horseback in pursuit of the fugitive, but up to a late hour had not captured him.

Contempt of Court.

Godfrey Poirer and A. S. White were before Judge Ross of the United States Circuit Court yesterday to answer a charge of contempt of court. It was alleged that the defendants trumped up a charge of cutting timber on Government land against five citizens of Kern county, solely for the purpose of serving a civil process on them when they were brought here under arrest. Decision was reserved.

California Waukesha!
PURE WATER!
The CORONADO BEACH COMP'Y
Made a very valuable and important discovery while investigating the water supply of the Otay Valley, San Diego county. They came upon a series of living springs, the water of which has similar properties to the celebrated
WAUKESHA WATER,
Clear, sparkling, agreeable to the eye and refreshing to the taste; one spring already yields 5,000,000 gallons per day, and other springs can, by development, be made to yield equal quantities.
This water has been piped to South San Diego, Coronado Heights, and Coronado Beach, and used with the utmost satisfaction and favorable results.
AN ANALYSIS
Made of this late discovery by the celebrated chemist, C. Gilbert Wheeler of Chicago, shows that it is exceptionally pure, and is possessed of highly medicinal qualities, which act as directly and favorably on all kidney troubles as
THE WAUKESHA WATER.
The above is fully borne out by the result of its use for several months among the guests of the Hotel del Coronado. Many severe cases of kidney disease among elderly people have been greatly improved, and others completely cured.
For sale by WOOD & LEITHEAD, Druggists, Pasadena; also at the Pharmacy, Raymond, and by THOMPSON & CO., Druggists, Downey block, Los Angeles.

SIMI RANCHO!
Cheap Lands. Good Lands. Prices and Terms to Encourage Settlers.
So much has been said and written about the high prices for ordinary farming and fruit land in Southern California that many Eastern people think that no good land can be had at less than $200 per acre in any good locality. But if you will call at the headquarters of Simi Land and Water Company you will find that you can buy well watered stock ranges at $5 to $15 per acre, and every one of these ranges contains more or less good farming land. You can buy first-class valley lands for $30 to $75 per acre, and small tracts of 10, 20 or 40 acres, for fruit farms, at about the same price. Colonies who want from 1000 to 5000 acres can be placed on one lands, suitable for dividing among their members, at $25 to $40 per acre. This company cares nothing for booms, and asks no inflated prices for their lands. We own nearly 100,000 acres, and have a perfect and undisputed title. The object is to furnish good lands, to actual settlers, at prices within reach of any who can buy land at all, and on terms which will enable men of moderate means to acquire homes in as attractive and healthful part of Southern California. We do not claim to have the best land in the state, and at present are not directly on a railroad, but expect to be before long. But we do claim to offer better land and more advantages and on easier terms of payment than any other place that has been brought to our notice. It will cost you nothing but a postal card to get detailed information about these lands. If you want a farm or a stock range write or call at 19 West First street, Los Angeles, and ask about the Simi ranch

SHAWLS.
In this department we offer a large assortment at greatly reduced prices.
Blankets and Flannels.
To reduce the price of "fancy goods" is a common occurrence, but to see blankets and flannels "cut" calls forth the inquiry, "How can Coulter do it?" Simply because he manufactures these goods, and there is but one profit, and he is satisfied with a small one.
Hosiery & Underwear.
We have very few trashy goods, but some odd sizes, in hosiery and underwear, which will be sold VERY CHEAP. If we can fit your person we are sure to fit your pocketbook.
Remember that the reduction extends to all departments. We feel that the community knows we mean what we say.

PASADENA NEWS.

"SALACIOUS ESCAPADES" GIVE WAY TO AN APOLOGY.

Sad Rites—The Earth Wanted—Return of the Scientists—A Close Call—Local Happenings—Personal Gossip.

PASADENA, Jan. 24.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] Our Universalist friends served an excellent oyster supper in the vestry room of the church this evening. A very interesting musical programme was also given.

The members of the Pickwick Club gave a sparring match in their rooms this evening.

"The Manufacture of Ice" was the subject of a lecture delivered by D. J. McPherson in Morgan Hall this evening. Ice is a scarce article in this lovely valley and to grow it here would be a novelty. The lecture was not only scientific, but satisfactorily received by those who attended.

The Burns Club enjoys a grand banquet in the Carlton on Friday evening. C. C. Brown will respond to the toast "Water"—with a stick in it.

The astronomical scientists will commence the descent of Wilson's trail tomorrow morning, and will arrive in Los Angeles in the evening. On Monday evening they will be banqueted by the Board of Trade of this city at the Carlton.

Mr. Pinney has severed his connections with the paint and oil firm of Chaplin, Tower & Co.

Dr. G. G. Green moved into his new and magnificent winter residence at Altadena this morning.

John F. Godfrey Post of the G.A.R. has passed suitable resolutions of respect over the departure of their late comrade, Edson G. Turner.

A number of young ladies and gentlemen from this city have a novel way of enjoying themselves. After visiting the theater in Los Angeles they assemble on the platform of the station at Downey avenue and, forming themselves into couples, trip the light fantastic to the music of a merry whistler from among the group. This is a good way to keep the cold out.

FUNERAL RITES.

The last funeral rites over the remains of Miss Nettie Pierce were said this afternoon at her parents' residence, in the parlors of the Crown Villa Hotel. The services were attended only by the immediate relatives and friends of the family, and were conducted by the Rev. Lamar W. Hayhurst, a friend of the family and a retired Baptist minister. At 1 o'clock a select choir sang the hymn, "Thy Will Be Done," which was followed by the reading of several passages of scripture from the tenth chapter of the gospel of St. Mark. Very simple but impressive were the services, including an address referring to Christ's love for little children and the rest promised them beyond the smiling and the weeping. The choir then sang, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," after which an opportunity was given all present to view the remains. The sleeper of the beyond reposes in a handsome casket of a sky blue color, and was dressed in a beautiful light-colored satin to match the inner lining of the casket, which was of cream color, embroidered throughout. The floral decorations were very beautiful and profuse, and filled both rooms with their rich fragrance. The collection comprised the most lovely plants in the floral kingdom. After the services the remains were placed in the new hearse of Lippincott & Son, which was of white, and the finest in the country. Interment was had in the cemetery at Washington Heights. Thus passes away a most intelligent young lady, the pride of her parents and one always pleasant and well liked by her young associates.

AN APOLOGY.

The Daily Star of this city, which likes a highly-sensational article better than its contemporary, after sailing into THE TIMES for dishing up "salacious escapades," has reformed, and proposes to apologize in the following language:

"Referring to an article in the Star of January 17th entitled 'Better Hush It Up,' we are convinced that we were misinformed, and add the following statement: A paper signed by 15 neighbors of the gentleman referred to has been shown us, expressing their esteem for him, and saying they do not believe the slanderous stories circulated against him, but believe him to be a Christian gentleman. We also have a sworn affidavit of the sister-in-law, saying that the stories in circulation regarding any undue intimacy between her brother-in-law and herself are entirely false and without foundation; that he has always treated her as a gentleman should treat a lady, and that his conduct toward her has always been respectful. This correction is cheerfully published, as the Star wishes to state nothing but the truth in such matters."

WANT THE EARTH.

The Star of this city, which wants the earth and claims the honor of being the founder of Pasadena, is in mourning because it lost the county printing. Here is how it tries to bulldoze the Board of Supervisors:

"Yesterday we noted the award of the contract to print the delinquent county tax list to the Herald of Los Angeles. The price bid was not given in the proceedings of the Supervisors, as published by the Herald, and we had to make a personal request for it before its amount could be learned. We were surprised to learn that the successful bid was $1.25 per square for three insertions. The Star's bid was 60 cents per square for the same time.

"On what grounds the Supervisors assumed to ignore the lowest proposal and accept one over twice the amount we have not been informed. They have it in their power to spend the people's money as they please, and in this case they have chosen to squander a couple of thousand dollars of it for the sake, we suppose, of preventing the dangerous precedent of allowing any public patronage to go outside the charmed circle of a mossbacked Los Angeles ring.

"Their farce of inviting bids for printing is kept up to beguile the public; the result is known beforehand. There is something rotten in Denmark when public business can be transacted in this way."

It is understood that the Supervisors construe the law to mean that they must publish the delinquent tax list in a newspaper.

A LIVELY RUNAWAY.

A team of heavy black horses, drawing a ponderous ice wagon, made a break for freedom from in front of Breiner & Crosby's meat market this morning, and miraculously escaped instant death. Crossing the railroad track on East Colorado street, the frightened steeds bounded along until Raymond avenue was reached. Here on one side of the street is a projected awning over the sidewalk. The animals dashed on the stone pavement, loosening the awning from its support and letting the whole frame fall on them, nearly covering them as they lay in confusion on the sidewalk. With assistance the animals were cleared out of the wreck and found uninjured. The wagon received a few scratches, but was otherwise left in good condition. A young lady was on the walk at the time, and had a close call from instantaneous death. Seeing the team close upon her, she rushed frantically into an open inclosure, and escaped without a scratch. The runaways drew a large crowd of people out to the scene of the runs.

The Board of Trade held a short session this afternoon, and received the report of the committee in reference to the entertainment of Profs. Alvan G. Clark and Mr. Pickering, on Monday next. No other business was transacted.

The Union discredits THE TIMES's article in reference to the regular Santa Ana storm the other day, and replies by saying we have only had one such storm in seven years. The author of the article must have lived in the rural districts all that time, as we had no less than three last winter. Sabe?

PERSONAL.

Dr. C. A. Conrady and wife left this evening for Oakland, in which city they will reside.

W. H. Storms, B. S. Eaton and F. F. Buell return from Wilson's Peak tomorrow morning.

James S. French leaves on Friday for Washington Territory.

At the Carlton: Frank A. Smith, San Francisco; J. B. Jones, wife and sister, Chicago; Miss Douglass, Samuel Osborne, M. L. Starin, A. J. Porter and J. B. Quigley, Los Angeles.

J. R. Kilpatrick of Flagstaff, Ariz., is in the city.

Thomas G. Barnard and wife of Los Angeles spent the day hereabouts.

John H. Peet left today for Portland, Or.

William E. Heames of Detroit, Mich., is visiting relatives in the city.

Rev. M. N. Cornelius left for San Francisco today to fill the pulpit of the Howard Presbyterian Church in that metropolis.

Sam Jones

[American Agriculturist.]

Rev. Sam Jones says he can earn $25,000 a year preaching all over the country, and that is why he doesn't settle down to a $1000-a-year country pastorate. Samuel is a rolling stone to which the moss apparently adheres, the familiar adage to the contrary notwithstanding.

[Redlands Citrograph.]

We have received a complimentary ticket to the Rev. Sam Jones's revival meetings at Los Angeles. As we are compelled to set the Rev. Sam down—judging him by his own words and actions—as a religious mountebank, and as we are not brought up to think such things as he does, and such words as he uses, are right and proper within the sanctuary, we can only thank the committee for their kindness and—stay away. We do not care to have our opinion of true religion dragged down to the level of this peripatetic mountebank.

Who Is Your Best Friend?

Your stomach, of course. Why? Because if it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair, honorable chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the end. Don't smoke in the morning. Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink, wait until your stomach is through with breakfast. You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will tell on you less. If your food ferments and does not digest right—if you are troubled with heartburn, dizziness of the head, coming up of the food after eating, biliousness, indigestion or any other trouble of the stomach, you had best use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.

Notice is hereby given by the undersigned administratrix of the estate of Joseph Bush, deceased, to the creditors of and all persons having claims against the said deceased, to exhibit them with the necessary vouchers, within four months after the first publication of this notice to the said administratrix, at the office of Barclay, Wilson & Carpenter, attorneys-at-law, No. 39 North Spring street, Los Angeles city, California, the same being the place for the transaction of the business of said estate, in said county of Los Angeles.

Dated Los Angeles, this 31st day of December, 1888. EMILY BUSH, Administratrix of the estate of Joseph Bush, deceased. 25-1-8-15

Order to Show Cause Why Order of Sale of Real Estate Should Not Be Made.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF the county of Los Angeles, State of California.

In the matter of the estate of Elizabeth Wiebecke, deceased. John Kohohlmos, the administrator of the estate of Elizabeth Wiebecke, deceased, having filed his petition herein praying for an order of sale of the whole of the real estate of said decedent for the purposes therein set forth, it is therefore ordered by the said court that all persons interested in the estate of said deceased appear before the said Superior Court on Friday, the 15th day of February, 1889, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the courtroom of said Superior Court, to wit: the courtroom of Department No. 2 thereof, at the city of Los Angeles, in the county of Los Angeles, to show cause why an order should not be granted to the said administrator to sell so much of the real estate of the said deceased, Elizabeth Wiebecke, as shall be necessary.

And that a copy of this order be published at least four (4) successive weeks in the Los Angeles Daily Times, a newspaper printed and published in said Los Angeles county.

Dated January 11, 1889.

W. H. CLARK, Judge of the Superior Court.

Assessment Notice.

RAYMOND IMPROVEMENT CO. Location of principal place of business: Los Angeles, Cal. Location of works, Los Angeles county.

Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the Board of Directors, held on the 21st day of January, 1889, an assessment (No. 7) of three and a half dollars per share was levied upon the capital stock of the corporation, payable immediately in United States gold coin to the secretary at the office of the company, room 9, No. 25 West First street, Los Angeles, Cal.

Any stock upon which this assessment shall remain unpaid on the 28th day of February, 1889, will be delinquent, and advertised for sale at public auction, and unless payment is made before, will be sold on Saturday, the 16th day of March, 1889, to pay the delinquent assessment together with costs of advertising and expenses of sale.

By order of the Board of Directors,
W. G. HUGHES, Secretary,
Office, room 9, No. 25 West First street, Los Angeles, Cal.

Notice for Publication of Time for Proving Will, Etc.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT, State of California, county of Los Angeles, ss. No 9676.

In the matter of the estate of Johanna Gorman, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that Monday, the 28th day of January, 1889 at 10 o'clock a.m. of said day, at the courtroom of this court, Department Two thereof in the Jones block city of Los Angeles, county of Los Angeles, and State of California, has been appointed as the time and place for hearing the application of Henry William Gorman, praying that a document now on file in this court, purporting to be the last will and testament of the said deceased, be admitted to probate and that letters testamentary be issued thereon to Henry William Gorman, at which time and place all persons interested therein may appear and contest the same.

Dated January 17, 1889.
C. H. DUNSMOOR, County Clerk.
By M. J. ASHMORE, Deputy.
STEPHEN V. WHITE, Attorney for Petitioner.

BUSINESS.

Money, Stocks and Bonds.

By Telegraph to The Times.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—Money on call easy at 2 per cent.

Prime mercantile paper, 4@5½.

Sterling exchange, firm at 4.86 for 60-day bills, 4.89 for demand.

Government bonds, dull and steady.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The stock market was still less active today, and dealings were even more than usual of late devoid of special feature. Rock Island and St. Paul preferred were the only stocks in which there was any marked impression made by bears, each losing over a point, although both recovered handsomely toward the close. The close was dull but firm; most of the list were slightly higher, but in no case is the final change for more than a fraction.

OCEAN PALACES.

The steamships Queen of the Pacific, Santa Rosa and City of Puebla excel in their appointments and speed anything afloat in this country; and for comfort and convenience, are ahead of the transatlantic lines

Eastern tourists should treat themselves to a run up the coast. The voyage is usually smooth and delightful. A trip to San Luis Obispo and a ride over the Pacific Coast Railway, through the beautiful Avila Cañon, the Arroyo Grande and Santa Maria valleys, to Los Olivos (the home of the olive), is most enjoyable.

The Avila and Pismo beaches are very fine, and the celebrated Avila Hot Sulphur Springs are close at hand.

The new and beautiful Hotel Ramona is one of the finest in the country, and the rates are very reasonable

For further particulars inquire at steamship office, No. 8 Commercial street, Los Angeles.

Now Ready, and for sale by Carriers, Newsboys, News Agents, and at the Counter.

ANNUAL TRADE NUMBER,

—CONTAINING—

A COMPLETE REVIEW OF THE YEAR.

Fifty-six Large Pages. Equivalent to a Two Hundred Page Book.

The Annual Trade Number of THE TIMES, now ready, is the most complete and interesting publication of that character ever published in Los Angeles.

NOTABLE FEATURES—It contains a business review of the year, embracing a great mass of valuable facts bearing on the city and county; a thorough exposition of our natural resources—mineral, vegetable, commercial and climatic; a review of the rise and progress of the boom, with solid proofs that the country is now in better condition than it was during the height of the real-estate excitement; a carefully compiled exposition of the varied inducements which Southern California offers to the health-seeker, the home-seeker and the tourist, besides a number of interesting and valuable special articles on pertinent subjects. It contains more solid information about the country than could be crowded into the compass of a hundred long letters, and for a few cents and the expenditure of a few minutes' time in writing the address you can send a friend more information than you could write in a month, even if you had all the facts at hand. For a dollar you can supply ten families in the frozen East with information that may lead them to join the army of pilgrims to Southern California, to their own and this country's advantage. Thus, whether viewed from the standpoint of friendship or self-interest it will be seen that no better use can be made of a dollar than by purchasing the rewith ten copies of the great Annual Trade Number of THE TIMES. Not one-tenth of the pleasure can be bestowed in any other way for the same amount of money.

Premium Sewing Machine.

HAS THIS AN EQUAL?

A High-grade Sewing Machine

AT MANUFACTURERS' PRICES.

THE "MIRROR" PREMIUM

High-Arm

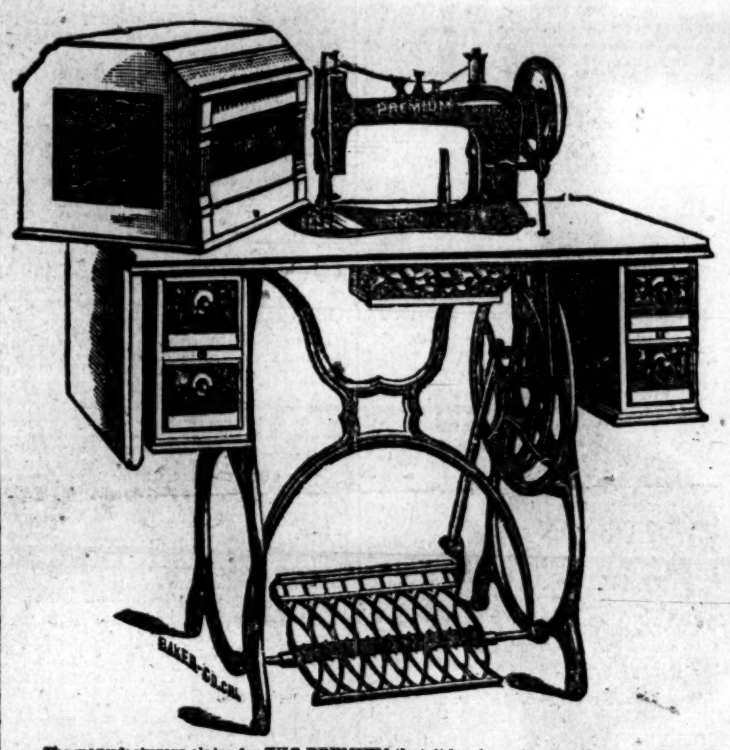
SEWING MACHINE!

Half Cabinet, Five Drawer, $60 Machine,

—FOR—

$25.50 =:= $25.50

With Copy of the WEEKLY MIRROR One Year.



The manufacturers claim for THE PREMIUM that it has been improved and simplified in all its details by the best mechanical talent in America, who, with unlimited resources at their command, have combined only that which is practicable and dispensed with all complicated surroundings generally found in other machines.

It is the simplest machine, having the fewest parts, all strong, and with case-hardened bearings. Being free from complication it is easily cared for, never gets out of order, and is always ready for use. The most inexperienced can readily manage it. It has all the modern appliances and conveniences that go to make up the sum of excellences, successfully combining simplicity, durability, speed, strength and beauty, producing a machine unequaled for ease of management and capacity for wide range of work.

THE PREMIUM HIGH-ARM

Is light-running and noiseless, uses A STRAIGHT, SELF-SETTING NEEDLE, and makes the double-thread "Lock Stitch." It is the perfection of mechanism for hemming, felling binding, cording, braiding, seaming, tucking, ruffling, gathering, embroidering, hemstitching, quilting, etc.

It is adapted to every variety of sewing, from the lightest muslins to the heaviest cloths, and will do a greater range of work than any other machine.

The woodwork is unique and attractive in style and substantially made from well seasoned and carefully selected material. Its elegant finish and rich trimmings are in good taste, and harmonize with the excellent workmanship of the machine.

For more handsome and ornamental than the ordinary style of woodwork, it is at the same time of equal durability, utility and good finish.

WARRANTEE—The usual five-year warrantee is given to us by the manufacturers, and we in turn guarantee every machine to give full and entire satisfaction.

NO RISK WHATEVER.

So great is our confidence and knowledge of the superiority of the PREMIUM HIGH-ARM that we further agree with every purchaser to REFUND THE MONEY in case full satisfaction is not given by the machine in every particular after a month's trial.

Tailors, Dressmakers, Seamstresses, manufacturers of clothing, shirts, skirts, corsets, umbrellas, etc., will find one of its best recommendations is its special adaptation to their wants and range of work.

The Automatic Tension,

When once properly regulated, will rarely need to be changed, and as a general rule, the whole range of family sewing can be done without any change of tension whatever. This result is obtained by nicely adjusted springs, that will accommodate themselves to the size of thread used.

OUR CLAIMS FOR SUPERIORITY

ARE AS FOLLOWS:

A Device Whereby the bobbin can be wound without running the machine saves the unnecessary wear of the machine and the trouble of unthreading and removing work and attachments while the bobbin is being filled.

A Scale for Regulating The length of stitch, which enables the operator to readily ascertain the length of stitch without testing previous to commencing work.

A Spring-Tension Cylinder Shuttle, Holding a bobbin that carries a large amount of thread. There is but one hole to thread through, making it the most easily threaded shuttle in use. The tension may be changed without removing the shuttle from the machine.

The Double Feed Extends on both sides of the needle and permits a greater variety of work than any other. It has great power and never fails to perform its duty—will feed the lightest and heaviest goods with equal precision, and will cross seams and hard places without changing length of stitch or missing stitches.

Light Running. On account of the simple mechanical devices employed in its construction, runs lighter and with greater speed than any other machine, and is almost noiseless. It is the simplest, EASIEST OPERATED, best made and most elegantly ornamented machine in the world, combining every requisite to produce perfect work.

Inviting a practical test of this machine, we distinctly claim for it a great superiority in plan, material, workmanship, and in its performance. It is unquestionably the most popular machine now in the market.

—THE OUTFIT.—

Each machine is supplied with the following outfit: One Hemmer and Feller (one piece) Twelve Needles, Six Bobbins, One Wrench, One Quilting Gauge, One Screwdriver, Oil Can filled with oil, Cloth Gauge and Thumbscrew, and a Book of Instructions. The following extra attachments are also furnished free: Ruffler, Tucker, Binder, Set of Wide Hemmers and Shirring Plate.

The book of instructions is profusely illustrated, and answers the purpose of a competent teacher.

Machines are shipped as fast freight, unless otherwise ordered; we paying freightage to Los Angeles, and purchaser paying from Los Angeles to his home.

Sewing machine agents sell this machine for $55 and $60; $25.50 buys one from us, with a year's subscription to the WEEKLY MIRROR in addition. Subscribe with your local agent, or address

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

San Jones held forth to the usually large congregations at the Pavilion yesterday and last evening.

The City Surveyor's office is engaged in running preliminary lines for the outfall sewer to Wilmington.

The California Social Club gave its second social dance Wednesday evening at Turnverein Hall, which proved to be a very delightful party.

There are undelivered telegrams at the Western Union Telegraph office, for Miss Emma Miles, Miss Julia Lhote, John Millheim, Albert Haskins, J. E. Houghton, William S. Hopkins.

It was reported at the police station last night that a gold watch, shell-shaped, Elgin movement, with "M. L." engraved on the back, had been stolen. The detectives are looking after the matter.

There were but two arrivals at the County Jail yesterday, James Carr, a petty larceny thief from Pomona, and Charley Chung, the perjured Chinaman. There are now but 144 prisoners in the tanks.

The following passengers left by yesterday noon's train for the north: C. T. Swan, A. H. Porter, J. D. Harvey, Dr. Anderson, Van Demard, Miss Williams, A. J. Cornelleus, J. E. Plater, M. Kramer, L. A. Gedlan.

The house of Lawyer E. E. Galbreth on Angeleño Heights was a scene of wedding festivities Wednesday evening. Dr. A. P. Hays took to himself a wife, Miss Anna M. Perkins. Rev. Joel S. Gilfillan tied the silken knot.

Miss C. D. Burnett, lecturer and organizer for the W.C.T.U., will speak at the Third Presbyterian Church, corner of Hill and Pine streets, this (Friday) evening, January 25th, at 7:30. All interested in the cause are invited to be present.

The laying of the corner stone of the First Presbyterian Church of Santa Monica will take place tomorrow at 2 o'clock p.m. A cordial invitation is extended to the public. The train leaves Los Angeles 9:30 and returns, leaving Santa Monica 3:30 p.m.

Two Chinamen were arrested yesterday morning for violating the license ordinance and locked up. The smooth heathens are particularly clever at breaking the law in these matters and give the police a good deal of trouble, but they are generally caught up with in the long run.

The work of improving Westlake Park was commenced yesterday by the employment of 30 teams to grade a driveway about the lake. The sum of $7000 is to be expended in beautifying this park, of which $3000 is contributed by citizens and $4000 by the city. Other parks, hitherto neglected, are soon to receive attention.

Mr. Stephens of the Orphans' Home management telephoned THE TIMES last night that nobody is authorized to announce a horse race for the benefit of the home. Thus far they have raised the large sums of money required by them without resort to any games of chance or questionable amusements, and they propose to continue as they commenced.

A factional fight between two gangs of Chinamen employed on Baldwin's ranch under the leadership of Fong Sam and George Lem was aired in Justice Lockwood's court yesterday in an action brought by Lem Jo for false imprisonment. After getting well started the hour for adjournment arrived and the case was continued until 9 a.m. today.

The postoffice was the scene last evening of a pleasant gathering of employés and their friends, the occasion being the presentation to Postmaster Preuss and Thomas E. Burns, superintendent of carriers, of two handsome group pictures of the 32 carriers, all taken individually and then inclosed in a fine frame. The presentation speeches were made Thomas E. Burns and W. H. Stuart.

The case of Arnold Aarons, the proprietor of the Plaza Bazar, arrested a day or two ago for attempted arson, will come up before Justice Austin this morning at 9:30 o'clock, when it is expected that there will be some rather sensational developments, as the detectives have dug up some pretty strong evidence. Aarons's clerk, young Davenport, will also be examined at the same time.

A meeting of the board of directors of the new State Loan and Trust Company was held in Mayor Bryson's office yesterday afternoon, when S. B. Hunt was elected to fill the vacancy in the board. Plans for fitting up the banking room were also submitted, and a committee, consisting of ex-Mayor Workman, L. N. Breed and H. C. Witmer, appointed to carry them out. The furnishings will be the handsomest in the city.

PEOPLE'S STORE.

Friday, Jan. 25, 1889.

REMNANT DAY.

Today we devote mainly to the sale of remnants accumulated during the week. We have adopted the rule of gathering up the remnants throughout the house and selling them on Friday of each week. A desire to have nothing but full stock prompts us to quote prices that will sell out every remnant each Friday. In our velvet department a few short ends of fancy and brocaded velvets and plushes will be found. In our silk stock we are cleaning out everything but pieces containing over a dress pattern. You will find in this sale many dress patterns in silks of all kinds, satins and velvets, at half-piece prices. In the dress goods remnants you will find all the cut goods we have in the house, in all colors and qualities, ranging from goods that cost 10c up to goods costing $1.50 a yard. Remnants of ladies' cloth, of broadcloths, of cashmeres, serges and other material will be found among the lot, in plain and fancy effects, ranging in yardage from one to 10 yards; price about half what they were in the piece. In our domestic department remnants of all kinds the week's accumulation, will be found. Price is no factor; cut goods have no place in our store. These goods are marked awfully low. We want to sell them. Remnants of checked nainsook in all qualities at half-piece price; 12½c quality sold 2½ yards for 15c, 4 yards for 25c; 20c quality sold 3½ yards for 25c. Sateens, 15c quality sold 10½ yards for 89c, 5½ yards for 45c. Crashes remnants sold 5 yards for 30c; worth at least 40c. This will give you a slight idea of price. It is just about one-half the original piece price. We notice remnants of eider-down flannels in very desirable lengths. Remnants in flannels red, white and blue, that are very useful. Remnants of bleached and brown canton flannel that come in handy at all times. Remnants in ginghams of 7½ yards, which we notice marked at 25c. Remnants in bleached muslin of 7 yards for 35c. In a business like ours there are tail ends to every bolt of sheeting, every line of towels and napkins, every piece of shirting and table linens. They are cut from the piece too small to put on the shelves and constantly in our road, tying up money that could be used to some advantage. Upon good business tact we gather them up once a week and let them go at a price that will suit everybody. They are cheap. Come in and gather an armful.

WINDOW DISPLAYS.

Nottingham Lace Curtains, $1.98.

This lace curtain we had marked in stock at $2.75. You will find it on every pair in plain figures. We contend that they are worth in any other house $3.25. In addition to that with every pair of curtains we give free a magnificent cornice pole, all complete with rings ends and brackets, in either walnut, mahogany, ash or ebony, and cut the price for he whole complete to $1.98. If anybody needs curtains this is a bargain that may never offer again. Embrace it.

LINEN TORCHON LACE SALE.

We just received an immense invoice of white, red and mixed linen torchon laces with instructions to close out at any price. We put them in the window on exhibition and marked them 10c a piece for a dozen yards in the widths of Nos. 1, 2 and 3; 15c a piece for a dozen yards in the widths of Nos. 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8; 20c a piece for a dozen yards in the widths of Nos. 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15.

We have made the price per piece of 12 yards so as to clean out the entire invoice in a few hours. There is nothing in the trimming line so useful, neat and serviceable as torchon laces, and the price put on them for this sale per piece of 12 yards is scarcely more than the regular price per yard.

Fancy Dress Ginghams, 7½c.

We have determined to make this a memorable sales day, and aim to sell all we can for about one-half its value. This line of ginghams is not the plaided and pointed cheese cloth or house lining, termed by unscrupulous merchants as dress ginghams, but is one of the very best makes known to the trade. It is worth 12½c per yard for every yard displayed, and there are goods among them, odd pieces that are worth 15c We trust that this item will be appreciated.

UPHOLSTERY DEPARTMENT.

Comfortables, $1.35.

White Blankets, $1.19.

Two items, but rich ones. The $1.35 comfortables are a few left us from the great comfortable sale of last week. Price was $2.25, we will rid ourselves of them this day at $1.35. White blankets at $1.19 are a splendid value, worth at least $2.25, and cheap at that. We have only 58 pair of them. If we had more they would sell for $2.24. To close today $1.19

GLOVE DEPARTMENT.

Six-button, Black Kid Gloves, 49c.

None other than the genuine Trejousse kid glove, that sell all over the world from $1.50 to $2 a pair, is offered today, in sizes 5¾, 6 and 6¼ only, at 49c a pair; those who can wear those sizes in black gloves will find this to their liking.

Ladies' Lisle-thread Gloves, 12½c.

Black lisle-thread gloves, about 50 pairs all told, of a glove that sold for 25c and 35c, will be closed out today at 12½c a pair; black lisle gloves at 12½c a pair are pretty cheap property.

Children's Silk Gloves, 18c.

Eighteen cents for a pair of children's silk gloves, embroidered backs, all sizes and colors, about 20 pairs; former price 35c, go today at 18c.

PERFUMERY DEPARTMENT.

We accumulate odds and ends in this department, and among them are a few soaps that we are anxious to dispose of; there are only a few, and our price will sell them in the early hours:

Lubin's toilet soap, medium size, 49c; regular price 75c.

Lubin's toilet soap, large size, 69c; regular price $1.

Ayer's recamier soap 24c, regular price 50c.

Colgate's pansy and rosadora 15c, regular price 25c.

Colgate's eau de cologne and opoponax soaps 24c, regular price 50c.

Beside the enumeration we have a special sale which we sell all make known in our stores

CLOTHING DEPARTMENT.

We will have a great sale on clothing today. Reliable authorities inform us we are doing the trade of the town in this line. We have a little joker that is called the right price and the right goods, that is irresistible and is immovable. If you need any clothing for man or boy, see us today; we can save you money; not alone are we low in price, but we have to work off a surplus of stock, which, as progressive merchants, it does not behoove us to carry over to next season.

Men's all-wool overcoats, $8.49.
Men's all-wool overcoats, $8.95.
Men's all-wool overcoats, $10.55.
Boys' all-wool knee suits, $1.98.
Men's pants, $1.49.
Boys' pants, 69c.

These are the items offered to induce you to trade with us today. all-wool overcoats at $8.49 ought to come near being cheap; the overcoat at $8.95 you positively cannot match in this town at $15, and the $10.55 overcoat you cannot match under $20; these prices may seem steep for comparison with what others sell these goods, but we bought them at 33⅓ per cent. below their cost to the manufacturer, while others paid the manufacturer 33⅓ per cent. profit if they bought them at first hands, and want to make that much more This is the key to our success in the clothing line.

MEN'S FURNISHING GOODS.

Men's unlaundried shirts, 39c.

Boys' percale shirts, 49c.

Men's natural wool shirts or drawers, 49c.

Men's heavy woolen overshirts, 65c.

Boys' windsor ties, 5c.

A man's unlaundried white shirt @ 39c ought to be somewhere near right in price A shirt that is made full in every way, reinforced and improved stays, well worth 75c. The other items have had a knife drawn through them and the prices are severed in twain. Our furnishing-goods department is the place to get the value of your money.

HAT DEPARTMENT.

Hats are cheap. Black caps of silk are 25c. used for smoking or traveling; worth 50c,

Boys' felt hats, 37c; comes near being cheap when they are worth 75c.

Men's hats at 55c; the price ought to strike any one as being cheap; the hat is worth at least $1.

Men's fine felt derby hats, $1.24; worth $2.25; hand finished, latest block.

A line of hats today at $1.50; marked from $1 85 to $3 to close out.

We have hats down fine in price and quality. We are paving the way for the biggest hat trade ever known in Los Angeles.

SHOE DEPARTMENT.

Men's Calf Shoes, $1 66.
Men's Calf Shoes, $2.25.
Ladies' Pebble Grain, $2.25.
Misses' Shoes, $1.38.

These are the odds and ends of this department; 84 pair of the $2.25 lot, 129 pair of the $1.66 lot, 43 pair of the ladies' and 89 pair of the misses' shoes. These shoes are offered at about 50c on the $1 of their value to close the lines and advertise the department.

HOSIERY DEPARTMENT.

Ladies' Hose, 25c.
Boys' and Misses' Hose, 25c.
Six-piece Braid Sets, 75c.
Plush Center Tidies, 1oc.

The ladies', misses' and boys' hose are odds and ends in lisle, wool and cotton hose that we find it desirable to close out today. Price is right.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.

Everything we have on sale in this department today is at ridiculously low prices. We are simply trying to clean up our millinery stock, not attempting to make profit enough to pay the running expenses of the department. We want to rid ourselves of all fall stock—every vestige—before we show spring styles. Our price on every article on sale is about one-third of opening season's prices.

LADIES' UNDERWEAR DEPARTMENT.

Odds and ends in children's jersey flannel cloaks, 75c; were $1.50.

Odds and ends in children's merino underwear, large sizes, 25c; were 50c.

Odds and ends in children's calico dresses, 12½c; were 35c.

Odds and ends in ladies' merino vests, short sleeves, 25c; were 50c.

Odds and ends in ladies' merino vests, long sleeves, 35c; were 65c.

Odds and ends in ladies' finest camel's-hair vests or drawers, 98c; were $1.50.

We are putting our best foot forward to push off all the goods possible. We want to sell as much stuff as we can before our inventory, and if you will purchase the price will be low enough to induce you to invest in goods that you may not need for several months. You will find buying all your wants now will save you about one half what goods will cost later. Profit or expense is nothing to us at the present moment. We want cash and room. We don't want the terrible stock of merchandise we have on hand at present to measure, count and inventory.

People's Store.

A CALIFORNIA DISCOVERY.

The parasites, of which we give cut below, discovered by us, are the direct cause of Catarrh and Consumption, also many other diseases.

Magnified 350 Times.

Imagine millions of these animalcula in the nose, throat and lungs, as well as the minute eustachian tubes leading from the back part of the throat to the middle ear, and you will imagine the misery they can produce. Thousands are swallowed when the patient is asleep, causing kidney and liver trouble, headache, blood poison, general debility, etc. We have a specific for destroying them and expelling the poison from the blood. Use the CALIFORNIA POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE ELECTRIC CURE AND CONSUMPTION CURE to take and the CALIFORNIA POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE ELECTRIC LINIMENT to apply, and if the stomach is bad, use the CALIFORNIA POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE ELECTRIC SYSTEM BUILDER it builds up the system and purifies the poisoned blood. They are manufactured from roots, herbs and flowers that grow in California, and are safe for children. They never fail. The Cough Cure is excellent for Coughs, Colds, Croup, &c., no child will ever die with croup when this is used. Our Liniment kills pain instantly. See our Trade Mark on every wrapper. Sold by all druggists.
